INTRODUCTION

There is no greater fear in the human mind than the fear of death! Death is a dramatic leap from the known to "the great unknown." And humankind fear the uncertainty of further life--- after death...

Fortunately, knowledge soon banishes fear. It is the dark unknown of death that looms so fearful in our minds. Light of knowledge will remove that dark unknown. Death should never be feared.

Death is merely the cessation of three-dimensional motion. It is a personal state of rest that will return to a state of motion again. Rest and motion, or death and life, are now---and have been forever---interwoven into our personal and universal patterns of existence. What is the end of motion---in one layer or level of life---reverts back to motion in the following invisible layer or level of life and vice versa.

There is an almost perfect direct correspondence of this ceaseless life/death principle that is easily observed when using an ordinary room of a house as an example. It is a realm or layer of existence of its own. You are not alive in that room when you are not there. However, you are immediately alive in that room when you step through the "portal" or door, from the adjoining room or space. Likewise, when you step out of that room---through the portal or doorway---into an adjoining room or space---you are instantly dead to the presence or sight of any observers in that room. Life and death are simply our movements from room to room, mansion to mansion. And there are infinite rooms, mansions, or dimensions of human spirit existence. Death was--- and is--- an illusion. No one ever dies! You and I simply "leave the room."

In actuality, you are as fully alive when you enter our three-dimensional earth and put your baby "robe" on as you are when you leave the room of three-dimensional earth and take your worn or aged robe off! This robe or human body of ours is merely an embracement vehicle. We need to wear one while taking up our brief residence in our three-dimensional earth layer or level. The "No-Thing," which paradoxically is everywhere we are, needs a different robe or embracement vehicle when we move into a new room or space. You and I will always have some form of energy field or embracement vehicle that fits in with or resonates to the vibrational or frequency field that is real to us and is finely tuned to any new dimension we arrive in. We will always have a "body" that is attuned to any new gestalt field we enter---which will always seem to be, or appear to be, the "real" world that we occupy. In reality, every different frequency, or layer of reality, is different from the world behind it, in front of it, beside it, inside it, or outside it in endless numbers.

The questions of what is life, what is death, and what is beyond death have intrigued and puzzled humankind on earth through the ages. Why is there such ceaseless human suffering, such struggle, such despair, such violence, such guilt and regret, and such abject human misery here on earth? On the other hand, there seems to be very little peace, joy, comfort, fulfillment and human security.

Many of the answers to these many questions will be revealed to you in this text. What now appears to be a forever unsolved and dark human mystery will, hopefully, be solved for you before you finish reading this volume. Simply keep an open and enquiring mind. A person who "knows it all" already cannot see new truth when it appears.

The greatest gift that God gave us all in human form is the gift of conscious free choice! Free choice is also an awesome self-responsibility. It is a grand and mighty power to possess. That divine power of free choice is always totally yours, unless you very foolishly give it away to someone or something.

This supreme power of free choice will lead you through endless labyrinths of repetitive human cycles of birth, death, and rebirth. Your choice will place you in and out of the DEAD ZONE, again and again, or out of it---and into the unlimited space of pure god-self realization. You can know yourself as the grand and beautiful light-being, god-self entity that you are! That is your "mission"!

In the end, there is nothing to fear in the DEAD ZONE, except your innocent ignorance. The knowledge here will set you free. I hope you will kindly share it with others.

I also feel it's highly important to emphasize---here in the beginning of this text that if you feel any fear as you reflect or absorb this information, you may want to explore what belief is giving you such fear. This volume is written so that you will have a greater understanding about the powerful and manipulative entities that are trying to rob you of life energies and curb your divine free will. Closing your eyes to their presence and their influence does keep them from holding their power over you---or your group, or your nation. Whereas, when you know what "ails" you, you can immediately move to "fix it." If you have cancer, or any other life-threatening disease, you want to find out about it---for denying it will only put you "in the grave" quickly! In the exact same way, when you know who and what these denizens of the DEAD ZONE are---your knowledge will protect and free you from all of their personal influence in your life---or in the lives of your loved ones...

What I am saying is that you can use this vital information to frighten yourself greatly---or you can use it to set yourself totally free! The evil vampires in the DEAD ZONE that hold such great power over those unaware of their presence is snapped when those being manipulated discover they are being used and abused. The light of knowledge robs evil doers of their power. The truth will set you free. Therefore, reflect this knowledge in that light!

AFTER/DEATH LIFE IN THE DEAD ZONE

This book starts like life, at the end, and finishes at the beginning! It follows the universal creative principle itself. First, the whole picture of life in any form is seen as a finished or completed (or ended) creation. Then, only when the end is foreseen is the beginning begun!

Death is to all apparent senses the end of our life journey. It appears to be the irrevocable finish of human life lived, but is it? Of course not. There is not death. I know for myself. I have already experienced the end. I died. I live! I have just begun!

The adventure or game of life is forever ongoing. The myriad of game players simply stop and rest, from time to time. They then return later into the game, often in the very same sport arena---or they graduate as a game master---and go on to other far different and even more fulfilling games in more vast "sport arenas." For every eternally living player, the "play" goes on! What is the splendid or sordid end of one game on earth is the fine beginning of another game here soon after.

An age-long question has been: where do you or I go after apparent death? Another one is: is there really a heaven and a hell? If so, on the last question who decides who goes "up" or "down"?

Is there a genuine god in this DEAD ZONE, or a genuine "devil" that fights for sole ownership or possession of you---or your nebulous soul?

Since right or wrong, like up or down, are relative terms, how can someone other than our own self know---or decide---what is right, and what is wrong for you, when God (Herself/ Himself) gave you the divine and absolute free choice to do what you want to do or can do?

These are all very reasonable questions that even the most simple reasoning human being wants answered. However, if you have given your divine power of reasoning away to others, then perhaps these important questions are of no concern to you! However, if so, you will always then be at the cold and exacting "mercy" of those who use fear, superstition, ignorance, regret, and false guilt to control you. Even worse, these vampires are cleverly able to milk you of your own precious self-identity---and your personal vitality.

As you will discover, the only DEVIL that exists is in the DEAD ZONE, working three-dimensionally through individuals, groups, or nations that play false gods or deviously manipulating devils in our lives in human form!

There is definitely a heartless and a living devil that exists in the DEAD ZONE.

That hideous devils plays false "God" over human life on earth. That devil was created naively and innocently by you, by me, and by all past and present billions upon billions of light-entirely selves that have lived or are living in human bodies on our planet. In actuality, a huge hierarchy of "false gods" and demonic "devils" exist in the DEAD ZONE. And since these two deceptive identities are readily interchangeable, we will drop the "devil" designation. Every single one of these active pseudo false gods contain both the so-called good and so-called bad aspects and attributes within them. These are "human traits" that we literally gave to them. Most of the demonic denizens of the DEAD ZONE were created out of what we gave away---or threw away from ourselves. They otherwise have no real life of their own. They only possess those aspects and attributes of human life that we have conferred on them---and to them! We can also take back whatever power we have given away to these dark beings... which then makes them and their overlords powerless, and thus lifeless.

In the long eons past, your death and my death have been their life! However, as each one of us awakens and takes back hi or her life again, these DEAD ZONE devils will die. Without our vital life force to support them, they cannot live. This is why they try to stir up every emotional outburst from us that they can. They literally feed off of our energy fields---even while we are in our human bodies on earth. We will explore our individual after/death life!

All death is self-caused. That applies whether it is a slow, so-called natural death (you can bet it is a nutritional deficiency), or a fast, violent or explosive death. Whether we "go out" without a whimper, or with a loud scream---it does not matter. The end result is always the same; the human body is lifeless. Upon human death we quit breathing and all our body functions stop. We think and we feel, but our spirit vacates the body and you or I wake up in the DEAD ZONE. We simply step out or ease out of our cold, rigid physical body "remains" and into our new embracement vehicle, biological spirit.

This awesome biological spirit has been slowly constructed by you over the days and years of your human life. It extends from three to five inches around your entire human body right now. It contains all of the DNA blueprint and genetic pool material needed to build your biological spirit immediately upon your death. The pattern or build of your new spirit "body" is uniquely what you have made it during your sojourn on earth in physical human form---no more, no less.

Pure light-entity spirit---by nature---has no shape, no form whatsoever to limit or to contain it. This is why you chose to journey through lifetime after lifetime in human form.

After death, you quickly assemble your "self" into the familiar human form or shape that you remember you were! This explains why some people who see themselves as much younger looking than they may look, appear to look much younger when seen in spirit---after death. Upon death, you are still 100 percent you! However, you are now minus your incredible, though very limiting, form and fallible body senses.

You think...move...at the speed of your thoughts for at least six hours after your physical death. You easily walk through walls or fly through the air. And you usually try frantically to feel and touch those around you on the earth plane whom you still see and who are still firmly bound in their human physical embracement vehicles. You discover with dismay that your hand passes right through them as if they were only holograms (and how right you are!). Yet, no matter how hard you try, shout, plead or cry, no one on the physical plane can see, feel, or hear you, or feel your touch.

There may be slight exceptions when certain family members, close friends, or loved ones tied strongly to your electrical circuits seems to sense or, on even more rare exceptions, see you as a hologram or a ghostly figure.

Nevertheless, communication, if any, is usually limited to a smile or some other sort of meaningful symbolic gesture, as you attempt to make those clearly grieving your physical exit from the earth stage aware that you are still alive and feeling better than you have ever felt while in your sadly mistreated human body. The persistent aches and pains of your former human body are now gone. The only tremendously real anguish is your very intense guilt and sorrow for things done, or still undone, when it was easily possible---in the physical world---now left irrevocably behind!

As soon as you begin to get oriented to your new reality---and to your new unrestricted "body"---entities in the DEAD ZONE, some in the guise and form of your already deceased family, or friends, or helpers from the physical "sleep plane" (bridging into the DEAD ZONE) may swarm around you to greet you and guide you.

At some point a pseudo god, surrounded by light (that you will instantly assume is Christ, Buddha, Krishna, Jehovah, Mohammed, or whatever your former earth plane beliefs dictated) will appear and will lovingly offer to take away the burden of your guilt, sorrows, regrets, and whatever painful memories you carry. You will gladly give them away to this "benign" entity, just as you have done so to many others countless other times, cycle after cycle, of earthly human births and after/death lives!

You then have just craftily been stripped of your most valuable life experiences (without conscience) by one of the many evil overlords of the DEAD ZONE. You are only allowed to keep enough memory of your own unique self-identity to keep you from totally disintegrating back to No-Thing (nothing). Thus, you can now mindlessly serve this overlord as a slave during your recovery period in the DEAD ZONE (not much different from having been an almost mindless slave to the behind-the-scenes overlords of the physical plane which you had just served your "life sentence" in).

Then in due time you will be reseeded in the earth plane again, as part of a new crop of humanoids that will be harvested again, harvest upon harvest, almost without end!

This terrible repetitious cycle revealed here has been going on in the DEAD ZONE for millions of years---but the end is near! The DEAD ZONE is about to collapse---and relatively soon.

Meanwhile, by the very nature of your own unique personal wavelength or vibratory rate, you already belong to one of the countless groupings or gestalts in the DEAD ZONE. That is the world you will experience as real during after/death.

AS a rule, the lower the density, the worse kind of a slum it will be. Conversely, the higher the density, the better your environment and life condition will be. Your past actions or non-actions have created your reality in the DEAD ZONE---just as they do on our earth plane. You will live in your own self-created vibratory dimension, along with all of the other biological spirits who are also embodied in that layer or level or reality. That world is very similar to planet Earth, since it is a collective memory construct of all the earthly experiences of those banded there with you. This is the heaven or hell of your own personal and group reality.

Usually, in seven to forty years you will be ready and eager to go back into a physical embodiment upon earth again. The cycle then begins to repeat itself. Once again, you are rebirthed into a guilt-laden linear time earth plane reality, where you will continue to fee your DEAD ZONE keeper---even during your now present and very real physical human earth life! You may be astonished to learn that the DEAD ZONE plays a dark and heavy had in sowing, cultivating, and harvesting emotional energy from our three-dimensional earth affairs as well.

Like it or not, know it or not, you and I have truthfully been innocent prisoners and slaves of the overlords of the DEAD ZONE for long ages. However, discovering these truths has set me free! It can also just as easily set you and your dear loved ones free!

Small minds live in small worlds.

Big minds live in big worlds...:

Chapter 2

Your Mind is a Gate

Open your mind and let all of your fears out! Reserve any strong judgments until you have read every word of this volume. Every single personal as well as our collective social problems we now face were created through our ignorance. This means we did not know any better. Your mind is a gate. Swing it open. A closed mind is slow, sure mental death. Some truths are eternal.

"Know you not that you are gods?"

"The kingdom of heaven is within."

The SOURCE, or GOD, gave each of us Divinely Fragment God Parts, the most precious and divine gift in all creation. We have touched on it before. Each unique one of us in human form was given individual free choice. Because you have free choice, you can choose to throw your free choice away! You can give it away to anyone---or to anything---you choose. You can blindly, thus ignorantly, accept whatever old or new politic or tradition you were birthed into without question. If so, this automatically cuts off, closes off, or shuts down your brain. This makes you completely powerless.

You cannot change your pernicious or ignorant beliefs until you wake up and take back your power to think and choose for yourself. We must each learn to think and choose for ourselves. No one else in the entire universe can do this for us---unless we allow it!

Taking back your power simply means that you open your mind and let old ignorance and fear out---and some bright god-light in. You and I can begin to think things through. We can reason ignorant things out and new things in, and thus enjoy enlightened decisions. When free choice ceases, all growth and all forward moving human evolution ends.

It is easy to see that new human thought is rare. It is easier to parrot the same old warped and often badly molded and misunderstood ideas. These badly rotted ideas are forever recycled, again and again, through each growing stagnant society--generation upon generation. Take the risk! Everything worthwhile is risky. If you do not like the outcome of your new choice, fix it. At least you are now on new ground.

No decision or action you take in good conscience is wrong. Why worry and carry regrets or guilt's like heavy millstones hanging from your neck or tied to your ankle. Your soul knows how to turn every single regret or seemingly bitter mistake from an ugly gray oyster into a shining pearl of wisdom. You must take charge---face up to everything and anything lurking darkly in your past. Bring it into the light of knowledge and resolve it.

You and I cannot grow or evolve through the choices of another. How can we if someone else makes the decisions for us? That only sets us up to play the role of victims. You cannot blame someone else for your own misfortune. The fashion today is to say he, she or it did it to me! WRONGO IN THE CONGO!

You allowed that present ruler of your fate to take charge of your life---and its lost direction. You are not a helpless victim when you willingly give your power away to your eager and powerful ruler. That benefactor will tell you how to think, what to think, why not to think, and what lifestyle you should live! Now you do not have to think for our self anymore! You must blindly follow, while the shallow owner of your free choice and your abdicated individual self-power leads you where she, he, or it chooses.

That is the old game, just in case you have not heard! The new game is called taking back your God-given self-power! Only God deserves your unconditional and eternal trust.

You can forsake your divine trust. You can give away your own right to reason. You can willingly close off the gate of your mind to new thoughts and new knowledge, but then you are already one of the living, walking dead! You are dead---even though you can still walk, talk and move your physical body around. A surrender of your right to think for yourself dooms you to a life of sorrow, anger, guilt and severe regret---overfilled with great struggle and much dark human misery. You had also set yourself up to be a full-course "meal" for your overlords in the DEAD ZONE. The denizens there will feast on you---quite literally---until your dying day, at which point they will further strip off most of your remaining vitality and self-identity.

The price you pay for surrendering your free choice to others is horrific. They are then able to evilly control and enslave your every thought, feeling and act. All of that grand personal power you have given away so freely now feeds and empowers the dark forces in the DEAD ZONE. They will now surround and envelop you through most of your life and death journey in human body and consciousness upon earth.

Every single huge gestalt on earth or pool of human consciousness of every kind is now controlled from the Dead Zone. Sadly, religion, through distortion of the primary true teachings, acts as a major controlling human gestalt---manipulated from the DEAD ZONE. Religion often asks you to blindly follow what it erroneously teaches---without question. This is not right! God gave us both reasoning and free choice to follow your own god within---above any external authority.

We must ultimately suffer great guilt and regret over giving away our right to think for ourselves to any so-called "teacher." This makes us a choice meal for the denizens and overlords of the DEAD ZONE. Guilt and regret are like a juicy steak being served to them on a golden platter! Any one, or all, of your dark, regretful, angry, envious, greedy, lustful, or negative thoughts and feelings are food for these self-appointed "gods." They stand by in the inner plane watching and waiting eagerly for your next give-off, or next give-away, and they pounce on and take it like ravenous wolves. They are genuine vampires.

Please leave your mind open as you pour over the following pages of this volume. A closed mind will keep you prisoner of the DEAD ZONE forever...lost! An open mind can lead you into finding your very precious god-self.

No one plans to coerce you into believing what you do not choose to believe. That would be against divine nature. You have a free mind. Use reason and free choice to accept or reject whatever ideas or thoughts you wish to hold or to reject as you peruse, explore and discover the startling new ideas presented to you in this volume.

A good suggestion would be to leave all of your heavily prejudiced or strong preconceived ideas and thoughts learned from misguided Religion, Science, or Philosophy behind! Most of these have been fed into us directly from the DEAD ZONE gestalts of like nature. Put those old tired beliefs on hold and go on thoughtfully forward now to penetrate as you study what appears at first thought as "far out" thinking---and which seems to have no objective basis for modern day reality. Do it boldly. Have fun!

Have no fear!

Rather than being tainted by evil, as dark forces now in power would like you to believe, you may actually find your lost way back into the light again...You may even extract yourself out of darkness and out of horrific past evil control!

Let us step forward now, and see what--at present--is eating you?

Chapter 3

I KNOW WHAT'S EATING YOU

You are being fed upon---whether you know it or not, and whether you like it or not! That applies to anyone who feels the slightest tinge of guilt, anger, or any one of the six generic emotions that our brain "lumps"--all of those countless in-between emotions we feel--together.

All emotional "feelings" of any kind are caused by electrical friction. They are body irritants similar to the tingles of an electric shock. They are literally--from one angle--electric sparks!

Feeling is totally different from emotion! Feeling comes as a divine communication from You to you, from someone else to you, or from something else to you. The "line of direction" of feeling extends from the One to the many.

Feeling comes from the center or Source of selves or things. It is spiritual in essence, while emotions come from an overload--or under-supply--of physical body energy. Emotions act like a mental or physical body irritant. Feeling is like a holy message from your soul that signals something is right or wrong. If it feels good you are on track to where you wish to go, be, do or have....

Our brain only recognizes six generic emotions: (1) JOY, (2) DEPRESSION (3) FEAR, (4) ANXIETY, (5) LOVE, and (6) ANGER. You will note that two-thirds of these basic human emotions are negative. Also consider that we are using the term "emotion" very loosely here, since joy and love are certainly positive godly feelings!

Wet Electricity

Entities that have inhabited the DEAD ZONE over the eons only get their chemical charges of "wet electricity" through negative human emotions. They frantically devour these energies since it is the only way that they can continue a live existence. Otherwise, they would soon disintegrate, or fall away, into nothing (no-thing).

Thus the "thing" that is eating you or me feverishly (or anyone else that feels negative emotions) is very alive---and very hungry. It is a vampire, since it feeds on the living energy of others!

It lives and grows a little more in the DEAD ZONE every time you and I, or others in human form, express fear, anger, depression, anxiety and any one or every one of the thousands of shades or nuances of these four negative emotions. Each shade or nuance is known and sought out as a delicacy to the waiting inhabitants of the DEAD ZONE.

The very bottom line is that they are eating us alive! No baking or cooking is needed. A lot of "stewing" really turns them on! It will always turn out to be a giant feast for these overlords. They love it when you feel even remotely regretful or guilty about something. Your negativity gives them their energy to live. Without it, each one of them would wither away to nothing (and thus be forced into human incarnation on earth again).

Over the long ages, besides learning how to strip you and me of our energies at human death, they gradually learned how to penetrate and manipulate human life on earth in our seemingly three-dimensional plane. They know how to bring up fearful ego defense, which leads to aggression, conflict and struggle---furthering violence, harm, guilt and anger, leading to depression.

This formula is used day-in and day-out by the vast hierarchy of lords and overlords harvesting us in the DEAD ZONE. They individually and collectively know how to give you that final mental or emotional "push" that takes you over the edge. They are masters of making you feel fearful and combative with your loved ones and friends. Your excess and undisciplined outbursts of negative emotional energy provide many of them with a whole mid-day meal, or a before-meal, or an after-meal snack!

Of course, the more guilt, self-unworthiness or insecurity they can get you to feel, the more of you they have to eat. You are to them like a cow put out to pasture. You can usually be "milked" of your precious life energy almost every day while you are alive on earth. Then upon death, you are heartlessly "butchered"---stripped almost completely of your life vitality and your unique god-self identity!

Then again, upon that human death, while trying to rest and prepare for another human incarnation, you are still an ongoing feast to your "personal keepers" or overlords in the DEAD ZONE. There, too, it is achieved through your blind, misguided devotion and willing service to wolves in sheep's clothing...You are carefully kept in complete ignorance of what is really going on. Does it begin to feel familiar?

Thoroughly duped, you look upon your DEAD ZONE keepers as if they were sacred gods---and obediently follow them around and do what they want you to do. You take their word as truth, just like a two-year old who can only believe and follow the dictates and teachings of the seemingly God-like parent, no matter how depraved, cruel, or unloving his or her parent may actually be!

Every single day and night in the DEAD ZONE is totally conditional. No unconditional love, no mercy, no truth, nor any charity can exist in the "hearts" of these fiendish demons...by their "nature." You are punished or stingily rewarded for doing or failing to do the will of your keeper in the DEAD ZONE daily. The seeming love given to you is totally conditional, and, of course, that is no love at all!

Your past innocent trust in religion, while still physically embodied in human form on earth, had already prepared you for a conditional pseudo "God." You learned the condition of being rewarded by "Him" (a very definite male deity) when you were "good"---and being punished by "Him" "when you were "bad." This misguided earthly religious doctrine set you up for undue trust of your DEAD ZONE keeper upon your after/death arrival there. You are eaten when you give loving devotion to these devious demons, and you are eaten when you give off negative reactions like fear, anger, sorrow, guilt, regret, and all of the countless other succulent and delectable "wet electric" dishes you serve to your keepers.

In a later chapter I will explain how and why these lowly dark entities can feed on your emotional and mental energies, and thus how the DEAD ZONE was actually created.

Of the zillions of known and unknown universes, this is the only one which contains a DEAD ZONE. From a positive and greater overview, strange as it seems, our DEAD ZONE acts as a human spirit "incubator." After human death, it is a temporary space or place to live---in between our ceaseless birth, death and rebirth on earth in human form.

Now you, too, know what is eating you! I personally do not like it! Fortunately for me (and soon for you), I know how to avoid being a succulent meal for these fiendish DEAD ZONE eaters! I know also how you and I can avoid that very painful "stripping process" upon after/death entrance into the DEAD ZONE! That blessed knowledge will soon be yours. Hopefully, you will share it eagerly and abundantly with your loved ones and the world in general, as I am now doing with you.

This astounding knowledge about the DEAD ZONE is not passed along to you to create more fear, and thus to generate more food for these sinister "keepers." As TWINKLE TOP, my fictitious little space boy from the planet of Plunkett, knows: knowledge or truth always dissipates fear! When TWINKLE TOP visited Monster-Land (shades of the DEAD ZONE) his parents had already taught him that fear makes a monster grow and that courage makes them disappear. Thus, he was mentally "equipped" to face and conquer every dark monster that he encountered! Dark forces cannot live in the light. This knowledge allows you to put a final end to being a DEAD ZONE meal for someone else! At the same time, as you and I withdraw our vital energies it helps to bring on that final collapse of the DEAD ZONE and the simultaneous transmutation of our earth into a heavenly or lighted "star." At far last, our garden-green, ocean-blue planet Earth and many life forms upon it are in the beginning processes of some highly startling and awesome changes---and most for the better!

Meanwhile, the only known way to keep yourself from being "eaten alive"---while in the DEAD ZONE or while physically embodied on earth---is to start consciously loving yourself into divine existence. Search for and find divinity within you.

You simply cannot love yourself if you keep on doing or saying disrespectful things to others around you. Instead of complaining and playing the victim role, learn to appreciate all of existence! Think it through! Can you really, or even convincingly, pretend to love yourself if you say and repeatedly do unloving things to others? Of course not---no! Yet, each single one of us has

God centered in our being. With Him, we are everything! Without Him, we are nothing! We know inwardly to give our love to others, or we can allow our fearful and defensive ego to withhold love of others---and love of self. Learn to consciously monitor your every thought, feeling, emotion, and action. Leave all guilt and regrets behind. Then without guilt and the many byproducts of guilt---convertible into wet electricity---there is nothing more left in you that any DEAD ZONE denizen or overlord can feed upon any longer. Thank God!

Exploring The DEAD ZONE

There are many DEAD ZONE worlds---not just one! Where do you think fables or myths about heaven, hell or purgatory come from? Straight from the "bleed-through" knowledge of the DEAD ZONE.

There are heavenly and hellish states of life on Earth---and in the after/death sojourn or experience in the DEAD ZONE. Life in the DEAD ZONE is a very natural, almost exact correspondence to life on earth in human form.

The mental and emotional torment felt by us in the after/death world is equivalent to the torment felt by us during our so-brief physical human experience. The entire wide range---the very exquisite joy felt here on earth--or there in the DEAD ZONE is exactly the same. The total human spectrum of feelings and emotions are known and experienced as real when out of the body--just as they are thoroughly known and enjoyed while we are anchored so heavily in our human earth body.

Your journey through a particular DEAD ZONE, which all of us helped to create, has any different positive and negative states within it...

The After/Death Process

After stepping out of your slow, dense human body after/death your seemingly solid body vanishes! Instead, you now possess an astral double or "etheric" body. It is shaped like a human body only because this is how you remember your human form in your last embodiment. Otherwise, you would naturally take on the shape more similar to Casper the Ghost, like a light bulb--or a tadpole shape. bulb-shaped with a slight tail is how we really appear when we are in our pure light-entity "bodies."

In all DEAD ZONES, like in all other dream planes, all movement by all entities inhabiting or visiting that plane is mental! You simply see your self be where you want to go--and you are there with the speed of thought! As you know--I know from personal experience.

You are naturally confined to the DEAD ZONE world, room, plane, or "level" that you helped created through your own unique vibratory wave length or frequency pattern. You cannot really go out of the "borders" of your own socially shared (and very real world to you) plane of existence anywhere--in any universe.

Because of your former "earth belief" in wearing some kind of clothes (to hide your "wicked" naked body)--you automatically adorn the self picture of your ethereal body with any kind or any color clothing you wish to wear--with the speed of thought, for any "occasion." This is a fast way to dress!

Those sharing their residency with you in that particular "mansion" (of which there are many)...will see you dressed the way you want them to see you dressed. Since all of you there are telepathic (just like you are and always have been on earth--though you may have failed to discover and to use your natural telepathic powers while residing there).

Others there in the DEAD ZONE accept the pictures you paint of yourself--just like you naturally accept the pictures that all of yours "associates" there paint of themselves. Like on earth, you can tell the status of almost anyone by the way they hold their carriage and by the clothes they wear! The exception of course is that a "Master" will be known by those who "have eyes to see" even when dressed in beggars' rags or royal garb.

In reality--their same kind of "collective" belief system is what works universally. It is what makes us believe the "holograms" we see around us on physical earth--including our self--as real too! Thus time, space, mass, weight and gravity (polarity of any kind) is formed literally through agreed and accepted "mass belief." Very strictly, collectively agreed upon--by any universal cosmic, solar, planetary, atomic, or sub-atomic dimensional inhabitants. Or visitors to our good earth--or in any or on any sphere or realm...

The good news is that you never die!! You never lose complete self-consciousness or self-identity, anywhere or anytime! Voluntary exceptions will be probed later.

You are immortal! Therefore, no matter how tenuous, vaporous, gaseous, or etherically "thin" your embracement vehicle becomes--or coagulates into, no matter what plane or sphere--you as your own continued personal existence is always alive!

The exception to always being consciously alive in any specific dimension--is if your vitality is completely drained or erased from that dimension--by known or unknown means!

The practice and process of "wiping out" self identity on any plane is similar to us passing a magnet over an audio cassette tape. If the magnet is powerful enough, it will easily erase the voice (or living essence) that was previously embedded on that tape--or in the tape. You will read how this is done in the DEAD ZONE--in a proceeding chapter...

Through discounting ourselves, you and I literally disown much of our self-identity. That is how over a period of time there can be little or no self-identity, or self-identity of any human being!

The will to live is required in every dimension! It requires effort or work--often to struggle to survive! It takes continuous effort to live--while it takes no effort what-so-ever to "let go" and die!! Dying has been and always will be effortless. (The exception will be explored in a later chapter).

Thus the less effort given to maintain your personal self-identity, the more of your self-identity is lost. You then have less self-integrity. At a certain point--if our "life signal" is too weak--we are reabsorbed back into the One Source of Our Being--into Nothing or No Thing. That was the "point" from which each one of us was originally birthed forth as light-entity gods or goddesses. In such an event--at least that memory of our brief existence--is universally recorded. It is shared by all other forms of life--as a good lesson on how not to do it!

Nothing ever is lost in the universe--even in that instance! That important knowledge about how not to do it becomes another gleaming universal pearl of wisdom. It can be tapped by all of the on-going survivors of that plane.

Maybe you don't care, but I personally resent any attempt at being stripped of my past human identity at after/death. Who wants to be a living zombie in the DEAD ZONE?

Nor do I like being "feasted upon" by ghastly DEAD ZONE overseers or vampire manipulators--while I am still joyfully embodied here on earth in my beloved physical human form!

My own personal very real journey through the DEAD ZONE at age 18 gave me startling, rare and timely insights into this dark dimension.

Have no fear!

In the pages ahead--I will guide you toward avoiding being used by these DEAD ZONE spirits--who use fear, guilt, and all negative emotions to actually occupy and control our individual personal space. They work behind the scenes to control physical events--an actual real "Brotherhood of Darkness"--as opposed to the "Brotherhood of Light!"

Which of these two brotherhoods are you going to be supporting in this lifetime?

Chapter 5

MY DEATH EXPERIENCE

It was a bright sunny day aboard the huge oil tanker, the USS Ashtabula. The giant ship was sailing lazily up the ancient Yellow River in China, just after World War II. I was a lowly Seaman Second Class after enlisting in the U.S. Naval Reserve at age seventeen. My job that very memorable day was to locate all of the brown and red rusty spots on the gray metal "top deck" of our big oil tanker. I was instructed to chip away all of these rust spots so that they could be repainted.

It was hot and sweaty work and my heart was really not in it, so I was working very slowly and methodically. Suddenly, while chipping lazily at a particularly large rusty patch, a huge black shadow engulfed me. At the same time I felt a strong jab of a forefinger in my right shoulder. I turned and looked up to see the bossy Navy bosun looming over me. He was in charge of all the very hot work going on at top deck that afternoon and was not very happy about it.

"Get your lazy ass down the hold and report to the bosun in charge of the engine room," he said.

I looked up at him questioningly. He moved closer.

"You are going to help paint the inside of the ship's empty water ballast tanks. Snap to it, sailor!" he added, gesturing toward the lower deck engine room stairwell toward mid-ship.

"Aye, aye, sir," I answered with feigned politeness. I pulled myself up to a standing position, leaving the hammer and chisel where they lay and strode off at a normal pace toward the circular stairwell that led to the hold and engine room toward the rear of the ship.

When I finally arrived there, the burly bosun who was obviously in charge told me to pick up the huge eight-inch paintbrush and to climb through the dozen or so huge round, now open portals, normally latched tightly shut, all the way back to where two other sailors were already busy at work splashing the tar-like "paint" over all of the inner walls of each huge water ballast tank---now empty, of course! The bosun told me that I would be taking orders from the "salt" named Mac, who was already at work with another young seaman. He said Mac would tell me what to do.

Just as I started to boost myself up through the first smelly portal, the bosun warned me sternly that breathing the strong paint fumes in these small enclosed containers was dangerous. He warned me not to paint for too long a time, repeating that the thick paint fumes inside the ballast tanks we were painting were dangerous. He added that I should only paint for a short while the first time until I got used to the fumes, and that if I got "woozy" or felt sick at any time to come out immediately for a breath of fresh air!

I nodded silently that I had heard him and clambered on through the first open portal. The bosun had told me to follow the light cord that extended from room to room until I arrived at where the other two sailors were now painting.

At my entry through the portal into the third tank I was glad to see the young seaman approaching me from tank four. He was a good friend of mine. He was coming out for a quick "breather!" I immediately detected that he was stumbling drunk. My friend weaved drunkenly from side to side, babbling incoherently to me upon recognition. I steadied him with firm grasp and helped lift him back through portal after portal until we were both in the engine room again. Though I angrily repressed it and did not say a word, I was indignant and steaming mad that the dumb bosun in charge in the engine room had sent my drunken friend in to paint when he knew it was dangerous! I certainly did not know then that it was the paint fumes that had diminished the conscious awareness of my sailor friend and made him appear to be drunk and incoherent!

Still holding and repressing my anger, I clambered back from tank upon tank until I arrived at the empty water ballast tank where Mac, the "old salt" sailor, was waiting impatiently for me.

"It's about time you got here," he snarled angrily. "Stick that brush you've got there into that bucket of paint and spread it all over the ceilings and walls till everything is covered," he ordered curtly, pointing to an almost full five-gallon bucket of black tar-like paint at his feet.

My anger grew. From day one in the Navy, I had hated being ordered around by everyone like a slave, since everyone outranks a Seaman Second Class. That is the lowest position in the whole hierarchical ranking system, so I especially hated being ordered around so roughly by a seaman of the same low rank, even if he had been in the Navy for forty years.

I clamped my jaws tightly together and reluctantly followed orders, dipping my big paintbrush into the five-gallon bucket and belligerently splashing paint all over the walls and the ceilings of my side of the tank.

Neither one of us spoke a word to each other. After a few minutes of angry silence, Mac suddenly tossed down his paintbrush and muttered that he was going back to the engine room for some fresh air and quick cup of coffee. He ordered me to keep right on painting---and not to stop until everything in the room was covered, including the bottom of the tank at our feet.

Once again, I silently nodded and kept on methodically painting everything in sight as if he did not exist! I was relieved to see him disappear through the portal from the corner of my eye and slacked off my painting speed immediately.

I kept right on painting slowly and methodically. I was beginning to feel sluggish, yet elated, never realizing that my body was suffering serious deprivation of oxygen.

After a few more quiet and solitary moments of painting I began to realize that I was feeling queasy and slightly ill, and the warning of the bosun in the engine room resounded in my slow-moving mind.

"Oh-oh," I thought, almost in slow motion, "I better get back for fresh air, too!"

Slowly following my thought, I pitched my paintbrush down beside the other two and clambered unsteadily from portal to portal until I arrived at the last one in the engine room and stuck my head out for a gasp of fresh air.

As I inhaled a long, deep, exhilarating breath of oxygen into my lungs I peered into the brightly lit engine room. The bosun and Mac seemed to be swapping sea stories, while my sailor friend sat nearby them, quietly sipping his coffee.

Just then, as fate would have it, Mac, the old salt, turned to see and hear me inhale my second big breath of air, while at the same time starting to extend one foot and leg out over the portal into the engine room.

A big silly smirk crossed Mac's face, and he raided his voice loud enough so that I could hear it, too!

"Boy, these goddamn new recruits are all 'goldbrick babies'."

That is about the worst insult anyone can give! It means you are acting like an officer with gold braids who is shirking his own work, pulling rank, and foisting his work on someone of lower rank.

I seethed with anger and jerked my foot and leg back through the portal. Rage flooded every pore and cell of my body. I shook and trembled and my whole body felt like it wanted to explode with anger.

The anger filled me with new energy and I clamped my jaws together again, backtracking my way into the dimly lit tank where Mac and I had been painting. My sailor friend obviously did not return and I felt angry with him, too.

"I don't care if I keep painting until I drop," I screamed mentally to myself---which indeed was a self-claimed and self-fulfilled "prophecy!"

"I'll show them!" meaning Mac and my friend.

This time, vitalized by my anger, I began painting with a wild passion, thickly covering massive areas with black paint. The walls were not all covered, and only a few patches of the ceiling and the bottom "floor" of the tank needed to be painted.

I reached up toward the ceiling with a thick brush full of black paint when more very sickening nausea flooded through my entire body and being.

At first, I refused to acknowledge it! I "re-steeled" myself to keep on painting, no matter what!

A very ill moment later, I recanted and questioned the sanity of my continuing to paint any longer. My body was beginning to feel very weak, and I was both incoherent in my thoughts and in my physical motor responses.

"I'll just finish that small last spot overhead," nevertheless, I thought! My arm seemed incredibly heavy as I reached up to cover that one final spot.

That was my very last living conscious thought and physical action...

The next sudden moment, all of the walls and the ceiling overhead began spinning rapidly in different directions. I could feel all of my consciousness being pulled into the strong vortex of the spin.

At the same moment, every color of the rainbow began flashing in all directions within and around my startled consciousness. I also felt like I had become completely bodiless and had turned into a small spark of blue electricity!

Click! The next moment I was totally engulfed in stark black darkness! I was still me! I could think, feel and move, but the heavy weight and my huge body mass were gone! I was greatly bewildered.

What in the world is going on? Where am I?" I wondered with sharp mental clarity.

Click! A huge wave of all-encompassing, all-consuming fire seemed to suddenly engulf every atom of my being! No matter in what direction I twisted, contorted or turned in consciousness, I could not escape that fiery burning pain!

Click! The intense fiery pain stopped as suddenly as it had begun.

Click! A bright light switched on. Then in one split moment I relived and re-experienced every single thought, feeling, emotion and action of my entire eighteen years of life on our earth. I judged each thought, each feeling, each emotion and each one of my actions very harshly! I noted constantly how I had failed to do the right or expected thing here, there, and everywhere, again and again!

The load of intense guilt that I felt over my countless self-failures was overwhelming. I knew without a doubt at that split moment that I had died---that my physical human body had been left far behind, and that I had lost and failed miserably in new opportunity to help souls on earth again!

"Again?" My mind whirled!

Click! Instantly pertinent or relevant scenes, thoughts, emotions, feelings and actions of two "important" or connecting former human lifetimes flashed quickly before me!

One lifetime was in Egypt, approximately the year 1600 B.C., when as the Pharaoh Amose II, I had great personal human power on earth to make major improved world changes but I had failed to accomplish my vowed mission!

The other, also pertinent or relative, lifetime was very important, too. It appeared to be in very ancient India or Tibet many, many thousands of years ago! In that lifetime, similar to Swami Rama in this lifetime, I was also a modern day pope! Millions of followers worshipped and adored me. I was carried around and pampered to the day of my death. I could have done so much to help alleviate human sorrow and ignorance on earth, but once again failed miserably!

I stood there, in what I now consciously know as the DEAD ZONE, immersed in great self-remorse. I had utterly failed to do what I had set out to do before birth---in not only two opportune former lifetimes which I had just partially relived again, but also now with this sudden unexpected death of my superbly healthy eighteen-year-old human body, I had failed again. I stood and faced and embraced three massive human body incarnation "mission" failures! It was indeed a deeply sorrowful personal moment.

All at once a mighty resolve arose within my sad and greatly stunned consciousness---that one bright thought surged powerfully through my entire "light being"!

"No! Absolutely not! I would not accept defeat even in death! I will go back to my physical body and be one with my mission on earth!"

With the instantaneous speed of thought my strongly felt desire and thoughts propelled my consciousness and my "spirit body," which I now know as biological spirit, forward!

Click!

A shining pathway opened up before my rapidly speeding consciousness. I had turned around and now sped forward through the immense dark void! My focused destination was toward my return to physical life in my physical human body on earth again.

For a brief moment in the void, before I made the turn back, a conscious portion of my self-identity said gently, "You are already in absolute reality. Why do you want to return to that 'dream state' again?"

At the same instant, another seemingly stronger part or face of my whole self-identity exclaimed, "No! I want to return to that 'dream' and complete my goal!"

Looking back, from where I stand in conscious knowing today, I understand why so many others who have had genuine death experiences with their flashbacks of life, not just out-of-body experiences, have almost without exception described their own similar death experiences---their journeys of movement through a dark tunnel of light. In my own death experience, the dark void surrounding my pathway of light did have the appearance of traveling through a tunnel if I would have turned my focus to a side view, or a circular overview. My own total focus and, thus, perspective was from a straightforward motion, riding the light or my path of consciousness on the strong intent to return to and repossess my lost physical human body again!

Suddenly, softly, gently, I heard many sweet angelic voices urging, pleading and then strongly trying to persuade me that I was making a huge mistake by returning to my physical body. These invisible, but tremendously soothing, voices described how easy it would be, how peaceful it would be for me if I simply would relax and accept death calmly and gracefully. They were sweet as syrup. There seemed to be a huge chorus of them, but they were totally invisible. In soft, lulling tones these angelic beings painted a beautiful, enticing picture for my mind of the sublime paradise that awaited me if I surrendered my consciousness and strongly determined motion back toward my body. They were all so pleasant and so convincing that I started to lessen my desire to go forward and carry on with my earth mission, and thus began to perceptively slow down my forward thrust on my lighted path.

At that precise moment another deep and knowing voice within my being spoke into my mind.

"No! Do not stop! Keep going! Do not fall into their trap! These are not angels! They are demons who want to keep you from fulfilling your mission!"

Simultaneously with that thought, all hell broke loose! And I do mean that literally! The seemingly gentle invisible "angelic" beings became very frighteningly visible. No words could paint the picture adequately!

In one flash, all of them turned into every conceivable form of demon, ghoul, ghost, or monster imaginable! Hordes of them shrieked, cackled, hooted and dived and swooped upon me and around me in a fearful bedlam of hideous, hellish fury and great frustrated anger!

I stopped "dead" in my tracks! I was frightened and shocked beyond seeming conscious human tolerance. My forward motion on the path was now at a screeching halt. I was paralyzed or frozen with fear, unable to move.

Once more a powerful enlightened though form or self-realization flooded into my mind. A calm voice deep from the core of my being spoke.

"I am doing this the hard way; I only need to ask God for help. Help!"

Instantly, the moment my thought and passionately felt "call for help" sounded, a tiny pinpoint of ultra-white, ultra-bright light appeared on the far horizon of the dark void. The whiteness of this light was whiter than and white on earth!

That shining light moved faster and faster, and grew brighter and brighter, as it moved closer and closer, until I suddenly felt my entire self-identity merge as one into it!

Click!

All at once I felt a euphoric sensation of sheer bliss, of pure joy and total happiness. The feeling penetrated every atom of my consciousness and being. It was beyond description.

At that same instant my biological spirit assumed or took up the shape and form of a pure etheric golden lamb---not metal---but of golden light.

As that spiritual golden lamb, I knelt down on bent forepaws and bowed my head and my whole conscious being in a feeling of great and holy reverence before the Source. Reams upon reams of bliss, joy and utter happiness rang and sang through me. I gave thanks, reverence, love and appreciation to that almighty Source before me---THAT I WAS!

In sequence, another swift and knowing revelation sank into my radiating mind. I knew I was moving back into possession of my physical human body on earth again.

Click!

The next sudden moment I felt a very slow, a sluggish, yet familiar, heavy mass sensation as my consciousness centered back into my dense, fleshy, human body! Simultaneously my senses began to function and I heard very close and excited voices proclaiming human perspectives of reality.

"He's coming to!" one shouted.

"Back up, give him air!" another declared.

"Give him room!" echoed another.

I finally managed to engage my body machinery and opened my eyes and gradually focused in a ring of anxious sets of human eyes peering down at me. I was lying flat on my back on the cool, steel, gray deck of the engine room. At least a full dozen excited sailors were grouped around me. My shirt had been removed and one of the sailors who knew the rescue procedure had been giving me artificial respiration for some time! I was told later by some of the on-looking sailors that my breath, my heartbeat and all visible signs of life had been gone when they found me lying face down in the tank and carried me back into the engine room.

Strangely, I felt a powerful supply of energy return into my body within a few moments of opening my eyes. I shrugged off the "helping hands" of the relieved band of sailors. I knew that nothing they had done physically had revived me! My grand gift of life in my human physical body again had come from The Source of all within---not from without!

I rose steadily to my feet without the aid of anyone and made my way carefully up the winding circular stairwell, back into the incredibly radiantly bright day, and sauntered a few feet further and threw myself down on the hot gray metal deck of the huge oil tanker. The sun had never shone brighter!

I laid there and wept with great sobs of joy for five minutes or longer. With each cyclic new sob of joy that wracked and shook my body, I gave silent thanks to The Source of all that is, that I was back and able to exist in my body again---and go forward with my "mission"!

A few curious sailors hung around me and looked on, but all of them kept a respectful distance. I gradually quieted down into a euphoric state of great peaceful calm and divine reverie.

A few minutes later my inner divine reverie was very rudely shattered by the harsh outer physical reality!

"Sailor, how dare you lie there half-naked sunning yourself while everyone else is working!" screamed the big ship's chief petty officer, glaring down at me.

With choked voice, I told him I had just been through a death experience while painting inside the ship's empty water tanks. The astounded chief petty officer quickly apologized. He told me to take a few days of rest, but ordered me to go see the ship's doctor and chaplain as soon as possible.

The doctor said I was lucky to be alive and agreed that I should do nothing but rest for a few days.

I told the chaplain the detailed story of my out-of-body death experience. He listened in amazement and remarked that I had actually been very blessed to have had such a spiritual awakening experience at such an early age. Looking back, I was fortunate to have encountered such an open-minded chaplain; now, I am in full agreement with his declaration. That death experience altered the rest of my life---for the better!

As an interesting aftermath, for at least one full month after my death experience---even aboard the very crude, rough and tough atmosphere of a naval tanker crew---I could not think or feel a "bad" or negative thought or judgment toward anyone or anything!

Gradually, however, my state of spiritual purity dwindled and my human consciousness sank back to a carnal, somewhat acceptable social behavior pattern again. I was soon locked back into the guilt and regrets of social consciousness again. However, I was forever changed!

My personal death experience is indelibly etched or embedded in my memory forever! What troubled me greatly afterward is that neither my religion nor objective earth science had prepared me for death! I knew that a very few people on earth were actually properly prepared for that certain death experience of theirs. I no longer blindly trusted in either religion or science from that day forward---even to now.

My own longed-for answers to death, life and what lies in between have come! I am pleased to pass them along to you, as they have been passed along to me.

In turn, you may help yourself and many other human souls who desperately need this knowledge by passing along what you now know to them!

Chapter 6

HOW THE DEAD ZONE WAS CREATED

At birth on this physical earth, we are immediately heavily immersed and engulfed in guilt. The human earth plane is saturated in guilt! Our individual auras reek with guilt.

When we graduate from our physical human bodies on earth, we will be totally guilt-free. It will mean that we successfully loved our god-self into earthly existence! Our magnificent human bodies will be greatly loved, completely resurrected, and guilt-free as well.

Meanwhile, in human form, we each individually learn to know and master the mighty universal attraction/ repulsion system surrounding our existence. Like ancient yogi masters, we will be able to creatively merge our body and spirit into one singular and very high frequency wave pattern---uniting the two into one. Currently, they each are operating separately, on two widely different light wave spectrum.

From one major viewpoint, every single vestige of each of our life experiences on earth is electrical in nature. Every impact or conscious human life experience mirrors us, as being comprised of constant alternating electrical flows, charge and discharge, life and death, motion and rest periods.

As fully "charged" god-light entity beings entering into our human bodies at birth, we immediately begin firing off neurons contained in every cell and nerve of our earthly embodiment. This is what mirrors back and creates our body awareness and body "sensations." This immediately develops into our own unique human self-consciousness and that one-of-a-kind I am aware identity!

In our beginning, almost all of the entire focus of self-identification is centered upon our dense and seemingly concrete human body, which is a precious, priceless and well-worth-loving grand carriage, indeed! In due time, our feeling, or field of identity, gradually shifts from purely sensual body sensation to a gradually growing god-self consciousness, centered in our mind or solar plexus/heart center region.

Our original and express purpose of creating an embracement vehicle of any kind was so that this unique fragment of God, the Source of All, or the Great Unknown Void---which is your self or my self---can slowly become aware of god-self, and thus form a unique form of individual, or personality, self.

Guilt is the "super glue" that holds us stuck tightly to this planet! Guilt is what strongly and technically differentiates or defines each one of us as a member of the human species, as living god-selves, as Source Fragments living on earth.

The animal and plant kingdoms upon earth do not feel guilt. Nor do any of the countless "clones" in any of the countless other great and small universe or light wave systems feel guilt. Only unique humanoids can experience guilt. In the other endless clone realities everyone looks alike, feels alike, and acts alike---so what is there to feel guilty about? Thank God you were birthed into this electrical universe system.

Think about it. We earthlings are each totally different! We are each unique individual gods living in human flesh. Jesus acknowledged this fact when he scolded his disciples, "Know you not that you are gods?"

The answer---finally, after 2,000 years---is, "Yes, we finally do!" At least I can speak for myself---I do! I also know for a fact that there are myriads of us now living in the flesh that know we are divine, holy (whole-I) selves!

The great challenge is entrainment. Once we started to live in these grand physical human forms, through the entrainment principle, our frequency wavelength lowered. Upon our after/death we could not return directly to pure Source for recharging. Our vibratory rate was too slow. In primal days, we died because a huge dinosaur or a ferocious wild animal, could run faster than us and ate us. Since there were no other immediate infant human bodies available to jump into, we had to create a vibrational spiritual space, somewhere between the low earth density and the rare high density of our former light-entity self. There, we could quietly and calmly wait for a suitable human body to inhabit again.

This was the primary cause of a DEAD ZONE creation. The initial DEAD ZONE acted like a giant protective incubator, where light-being god-selves who had physically died could wait, rest and commingle socially with each other in spirit again. Originally, it was a divine safe place of human spirit after/life refuge.

Think about the wondrous miracle of life in form. When you and I were in the Great Void---we were No Thing, ZERO (nothing; that is everything). After that first feeble desire "to be" formulated in you, over eons and eons you gradually "formed" into a tiny pinpoint or ray of light, a god-light entity that did not yet know self.

You and I shifted from zero or nothing into a slowly individualized, self-aware field of light. However, we still had no shape, no definition, no form (of containment). Our unique self-spirits had not yet been created. That could only occur when we personally embraced a physical human body, and then personally identified with it as our own unique selves.

Contrary to what is generally accepted, thought or taught, both light and consciousness preceded human spirit and human form! As a ray of light, imbued with intelligence of consciousness alone, you and I still needed a physical human body form, which then could and did create our own unique human physical body DNA blueprint, or our very own personal biological human spirit. This biological spirit of ours would then allow us to re-embrace our identities as conscious human spirits upon our after/ death. This process then enabled us to move out of our dead, dense human bodies that had been intricately woven or designed by us while residing in 3-D reality.

Now we could take up a temporary residence in the DEAD ZONE, where we could wait patiently while reviewing and revising our past human life sojourn---until an appropriate newly conceived human fetus could be occupied again in 3-D reality upon earth.

It is during our human physical incarnation that we actually help to build up the DEAD ZONE---through our electrical discharges and our dumping, or disallowing, of various fragments of our self-identity.

When the god-light of your own self-being entered your first human "carriage" (from all of your many other briefly worn or greatly worn human bodies to this present one), that light of yours ignited and fired off or sparked all of the neurons, nerves, cells, and your entire body mass, including your bones, blood, nervous system, and all of your other body systems into conscious and sentient life! Your body always used up most of your subtle electrical charges to build new body cells when and where needed. However, the electrical "residue" from all these billions upon billions of neuron firings could not be fully contained in your physical cells and body. That residue, now loaded with your personal DNA blueprint and an accumulative frequency wave that signaled your own unique signature or self-identity slowly amassed or collected around the gravity center or magnetic field of your own physical human body. It thus created an electromagnetic or biological field replica, or an exact spiritual duplicate of you. Thus, your initial primal human spirit was born! Your reincarnation cycles add experience and knowledge to it---lifetime upon lifetime!

This biological human spirit has then become a true light hologram of you. It is fully embodied with all of your unique self-beliefs, your unique self-identity traits, your unique mannerisms and "I am" self-identity. This biological spirit of yours contains your complete individual, genetic human DNA body spectrum. That bio-electric spirit of yours extends a few inches to as much as twelve inches from your physical body flesh. It is alive and has a growing life of its own! It constantly hovers or circles your human body as an etheric layer, and double of your biological human consciousness and spirit.

Upon the death of your gross human body, your consciousness leaves your cold, biochemical atomic remains. It takes up immediate new residence in your nearby bioelectric field of spirit. To the eyes of a clairvoyant or a highly developed "sensitive" individual, you now appear in 3-D reality as a field of smoke or fog streaming out of the body and soon forming into a nebulous, cloud-like mass. In a short time this further forms rapidly into the familiar human body shape of your past human life that you remember and identify with the most. In this process, you are always 100 percent you.

In summary, upon death you quickly reassemble or build up an exact duplicate of your past biological human form. It is a spiritual double or counterpart of your prior self-image, composed of human-looking arms, legs, feet, head, torso, etc. Any limbs or body parts severed or atrophied during your past human life will now be fully restored, making you whole again.

Now in spirit form, you may make useless efforts at breaking through 3-D reality to embrace your grieving loved ones, friends, or kin---to no avail. Normally, within a few hours after/death you will feel a pull toward your level or plane of life in the DEAD ZONE. This is usually the point when your greatest "survival of self" dilemma occurs!

The single reason your seemingly solid physical human body had kept from disintegrating or decaying is that while you inhabited it, the light of your god-entity self kept recharging it by continually firing off neurons within it. These "sparkings" of electricity built up enough electrical charge to hold your physical body together. Now, after your physical death, and upon your new spirit residence in the DEAD ZONE, you no longer have this vital life-giving process working for you. Thus, in the DEAD ZONE, your biological spiritual form cannot self-charge or recharge itself. You need your lighted god-self presence in the physical body to fire off neurons. They need light to ignite! Therefore, unless you can "plug into" a real or pseudo god-source that will lend you some electrical charges, your biological spirit will slowly decay. That decay, if taken too far, will bring about a total loss of self-identity, as you gradually suffer more and more decay as the years pass below in 3-D reality. This eventually adds up to a final bioelectric human spirit death, similar to your recent human body death.

This would not be so if it had not been for the fact that while you inhabited your earth physical body you carried a powerful belief in old age, decay and death! These same strong beliefs were then imprinted indelibly on your DNA and gene structure. They were genetically transferred to your after/death bioelectric field that formulated your spirit self. Your beliefs have awesome power over your life and your death in any and all dimensions or planes and spheres of existence. This is why here on earth it is very important for you to replace your strong belief in death with a love, fascination, and a very powerfully charged conviction in your absolute immortality---in the eternal life of your God within you!

The DEAD ZONE expands, charges and renews entirely from our human excess emotional and mental charged residue emitted from our human bodies. Another well-traveled author in the astral or DEAD ZONE areas has termed this excess human discharge as "loosh." His book is listed in the bibliography of this volume. Can you psyche out which book? He, too, compares us humanoids to cows being milked of our energy---without knowing it. I recommend that you read both of his popular books concerning astral travel.

Nevertheless, while you cannot recharge your bioelectric human spirit during your stay in the DEAD ZONE, the energy you bring with you will normally sustain you from seven to forty years. You are also from time to time fed emotions or mental "charges" that have been projected to you or attracted to your field by loved ones or enemies still living in 3-D reality.

Your first really big feast from guilt-laden loved ones, friends, relatives and friends mourning your 3-D departure will give you an enormous boost in life-sustaining vitality. You can very easily get "hooked" on this kind of free meal! After one taste, you are likely to want more, since it really perks you up.

In all justice, you will be feeding off of the guilt and the sad regrets of your loved ones, friends and close relatives just as the loved ones, friends and close relatives (who preceded you into the DEAD ONE) fed sumptuously off of your own great guilt and sorrowful regrets after their death!

A good example of this is that I personally suffered great guilt and sorrowful regret when my own beloved brother Richard died without notice of a heart attack! In my longtime best seller now published in 8 major languages*, I tell the story in detail of how in a dream (through self-suggestion) a few days after his death, I passed through the gate of the DEAD ZONE and consciously met and talked with him there. I had failed to tell him how much I appreciated him when he was "alive." I not only managed to convey that message clearly to him in bioelectric spirit form, but that same self-destined dream encounter with Richard was also an important connecting link to my ensuing physical plane contact with my soulmate a few years later.

Chapter 7

WHY THE DEAD ZONE WAS CREATED

We have probed this already somewhat, but now we will get into a more complete overview of why this seemingly fearful DEAD ZONE was created. When the why or when and how of anything is understood the dark unknown loses all of its fear. Knowledge or truth brings light which disperses the dark or fearful unknown.

You now already know how you and I and all of us billions of light-entity beings in human form were created---and how we then created a beneficial DEAD ZONE . A ten-year-old can understand the simple physics behind the electrical creation of the DEAD ZONE. Every solitary life universal entity has a unique sound signature---a strobing off/on pulsation, which then positions or places it in and at a specific level of that dimension. Through the very nature of self-being, self is forcefully contained, framed in, or limited to that dimension. The exception is when it begins to strobe at a much lesser or much faster vibrational wavelength. It then drops or rises to the immediate "lower" or "higher" level or plane of existence. This is why we are fated to go into and stay within the limiting confines of the DEAD ZONE...unless, of course, our personal frequency wavelength is shorter and faster than this DEAD ONE---this vast universal human spirit after/death realm or dark region in inner space. It may be difficult to imagine or reason, but the vastness of what we know as outer space cosmically is equally as vast within as our inner space!

The DEAD ZONE is also a depository of clashing moods, of a wide range of tones and crashing emotions that determine our natural weather and general atmospheric conditions all over this earth sphere daily! Our DEAD ZONE aids us in producing the gorgeous planetary sunrises and sunsets that set our awed human minds and our enraptured human hearts aglow!

The DEAD ZONE has many wonderful redeeming values and virtues for humankind on earth, as well as in our after/death. It was formed naturally as a safe and temporary "haven" for our now tainted and impure god-selves to reside in while waiting for a proper rebirth. We are fortunate for that, and must be thankful for this for there is no other known DEAD ZONE in any of the other countless universes. That means when you do not "make it" through your schooling and cannot reach graduation, that's it! Back to no thing in that particular universal Source! You simply disintegrate. You go back to nothing or zero in The Void, hopefully though, to reawaken and attempt a successful journey eons later. The DEAD ZONE is a plus in our lives, not a big, fearful minus.

The major human problem (thus challenge) is not the DEAD ZONE...but those extremely huge and powerful demonic overlords within it that literally took it over and began to run the show there, through their evil deeds, and bolstered through those evil agents that control affairs of earth already embodied on earth...all for their own greedy, soul-less and selfish purpose! They have learned over eons the masterful use of every conceivable deceitful guile thinkable to lure the after/death human spirits into giving willing permission to be stripped of major portions of their human self-identity. We will explore that issue more thoroughly in the following chapters.

Without the DEAD ZONE (if you don't mind my play on words) after death, we would all be dead! There would be no second chance or two thousand forty-third chance to come back into 3-D reality and finally "graduate." The "mission" of every single one of us here now in human incarnation is to awaken to our god-self identity, leading us into human graduation and eternal spirit-realized immortality!

I am told by those that know, once we consciously pass through this tough earthly human "course" of existence, we will be known and very highly respected in every universe that we travel through afterward! This human course on earth is known as the most difficult self-mastery school through all of the known universes that any old or new god-light being can take! It is, therefore, quite rewarding when graduation day finally arrives.

On that note, our rapidly coming birth of earth as a "star" is going to push, pull, shove and draw many of us who are awakening to our gold-self spirituality into a blissful, fully completed "earth graduation." You and I can personally speed closer to our earthly human graduation with each new source of knowledge we absorb and embed into our atomic and sub-atomic body and soul structure. Good or god knowledge is one thing, or a core essence, that no one can ever take away from us.

Chapter 8

THE CREATION OF A PSEUDO GOD AND DEVIL

A cosmic law that can never be broken is that your temporal creations can never exceed YOUTHECREATOR! You and I can make a seemingly fully intelligent, self-operative computer, but no matter what science fantasy writers imagine or think and say, your computer cannot out-create you, the living creator (or out-create any other living human being that has created an apparently "alive" creation).

The idea of a human-like God was created by human minds. In fact, there is, always has been and ever will be ONE GOD SOURCE. You and I and other humanoid god fragments arose out of THE VOID of No Thing to finally become some (sum) thing. The sum of ALL THAT IS is the Creator within us!

As inspired by God within us, you and I and all of our co-creator light-self god entities joyously created myriads of forms or structures from excess universal light mass that had become compressed enough to use over eons of time. You and I and other such gods created the vast flaming suns and attendant planets, moons and diverse life forms throughout the entire cosmos.

That ONE UNCONDITIONAL GOD SOURCE gave birth to the many gods of creation. Creativity is innate within every single human spirit. We were made in the image of GOD THE SOURCE. From our perspective, the ONE GOD SOURCE has no known personality, and only unconditional "Sources." This is why we can truthfully say, with God I am everything---and without God I am nothing! The ONE GOD SOURCE never creates as a whole! Only god fragments incarnated in their various dimensions of reality create externally in their respective planes of reality. This then allows for free choice and unconditional creation. Otherwise, Creation would be conditional, thus absolute, and would never actualize in any dimension. A clone can only think, do, and be what the Creator of it thinks, does and is. A clone has no free choice and is simply an extended part of the Creator that conceived it. It offers no other possibilities for any surprise creations! How could that be if the ONE GOD SOURCE was running every single tiny aspect of "the show"? Where is the creativity without the variant of genuine surprise? There is none. Creativity by its own nature requires ongoing open-endedness, with variant free choice as to what the next "play" or mysterious road will lead to.

To my knowledge, there definitely is a genuine One God, meaning a divine god fragment like yourself and myself that holds all of the accumulated knowledge, power and presence of ALL THAT IS and ALL THAT IS NOT within that One-God-Self. This God is therefore Omniscient (all-knowing), Omnipotent (all-powerful), and Omnipresent (present everywhere at once). From time to time, this One God comes down to earth and incarnates as a human AVATAR. This avatar rights the wrongs upon earth and sets the example of what a truly godly human life should be. We will focus more on this avatar later in this volume. It is the pseudo "God" or "Devil" on the inner plane of the DEAD ZONE that is the problem. This pseudo "God" is the one who is conditional, and so are the overlords and "keepers" in the DEAD ZONE that serve under the huge hierarchy thriving there at your and my expense.

First, I would like you to have a firm grasp of the unconditional ALL THAT IS, or THE SOURCE of all universes and all living beings within them...and IT. As already stated but well worth repeating, A SOURCE never creates. IF THE SOURCE stepped into what it had created, with diverse life forms within it including humanoids with free choice, and began to create, free will could cease to exist. Who is ever going to try to complete with his or her absolute SOURCE? This is why SOURCES never create; they only SOURCE unconditionally, without judgment. Right and wrong or moral stands are only taken by Creators and Selves, never by Sources! In all of vast creation there are essentially only three different forms of living entities: Sources, Creators, and Selves. Our planet Earth is the only place where all three can be found. There is one SOURCE here (within all of us), many Creators, and few Selves...In this universe and on this planet Earth is the only "school" amid the endless and countless universes that exist where Selves are being "birthed", as we graduate finally from the human birth/death/rebirth cycle!

Meanwhile, THE ONE SOURCE (or God) sources SOURCE upon SOURCE endlessly! The SOURCE of our known universe was in turn sourced from a vastly greater SOURCE without end. There are divine SOURCES within and without all of creation in ceaseless inner and outer progressions. None of these SOURCES judges. Only God is ethical, moral, and holds all universal creation with certain boundaries, codes of behavior, and exercises enforcement laws with divine jurisdiction! Someone needs to watch over the animals, to protect the "underdog" and help to right the wrongs of human behavior, as well as set the living example--- as an avatar in human form.

We are the universal creators. You and I, and the countless other god-light entities within God consciousness created each and every single specie of gorgeous, fragile, free, flitting butterflies and birds upon land and sea. We created every specie of insects and animals, including the primate that was later modified into a humanoid being...and finally into the humankind we know today. We came from many far-off universes and brought these unique insects and animals from every corner of the cosmos from planets that had spawned different unique life forms. Thus, over eons upon eons we created this fabulous biological and botanical green garden of plant and animal life of such obvious great natural beauty---earth!

Eons later, we god-light beings who loved our earth creation yearned greatly to walk in the beautiful green garden below: to smell the flowers, to feel the water, to touch the rocks and play with the animals. As pure spirit essences, or mere pinpoints of light, we could not experience our physical hologram sensually. We could only mentally taste it, observe it, and appreciate the magnificence of our truly grand creation from a mental distance.

Finally, through long eons, our yearning to walk softly among the flowers and animals of earth grew unbearable. A few of us gathered together, united with the same exciting idea. We knew we could do it! We could create a mobile physical carriage, or an atomic mass "embracement vehicle" capable of housing us and suitable for use by our divine god-entity selves.

After long observation and much fine deliberation, it was decided by the majority that a primate animal capable of standing erect was the most appropriate living physical form to modify into temporary housing for the first few bold god-light entities willing to try it. The primate brain was enlarged. The body was slightly modified, dropping the tail. The spine was straight and it was now able to stand straighter and very erect, as should a sovereign god, and to nimbly walk or run on land and swim in water!

These first hu-man "models"---half spirit, half man creature, so to speak---were very shaggy and coarse compared to our modern, more attractive and streamlined human body models. However, the first daring god-light entities that projected their consciousness into these first dense human bodies were thrilled without measure. They came back detailing to the other gods the sensual feelings, sight, sounds, textures and titillating aromas that "he" or "she" had encountered on earth.

The fervor and amplitude of the grand new game of the gods grew! Soon, newer and more attractive and more adequate human body forms were quickly engineered. Each new model had added brain power, more beauty, and more mobility. The race was on! Competition was fierce as different groups got together and tried to come up with revolutionary new model human designs. Something new was also developing; some god entities were taking such frequent excursions into human form that they got "hooked" or addicted to 3-D life. Some others were outrun by wild animals or giant dinosaurs and were eaten. The experience was frightening and many of those gods dropped out of the game. The word got around, and soon gods were literally standing in line to make the next available "trip" to earth.

Soon a natural thing happened. The pulsation or frequency wave of the god-beings who were making several trips became altered simply through the entrainment principle...Two objects in close proximity slow down or speed up wave frequency, until over a long enough period both strobe together at the same rate.

Therefore, upon their sudden violent death in human form, these gods were so altered, their vibratory rate slowed down so much, that they no longer could get back to that high, pure god frequency band they had formerly shared with other companion god-light beings! This resulted in the first tiny formulative stage of the DEAD ZONE. These after/death gods were trapped, though safely cocooned, in a self-made frequency band or level from which they could not rise into pure god levels again. Their only recourse was to ponder over what had separated them from their god SOURCE and to reincarnate in the first available human body they could find. Hopefully, once back in human form they could figure out a way to raise their vibratory rate, and thus return to their natural home in the heavens with their god SOURCE.

This new DEAD ZONE was then a region of god-self created space---somewhere in between the ultra-high god-light frequency wave "above" and the sluggishly slow strobing frequency wave of physical human incarnation on earth "below." This meant that the god being, male or female, trapped in a primate human body form who suddenly got killed by accident or a predator now had a "common ground," a mid-haven where he or she could mingle, assemble or be with like companions when after/death occurred. Now, each of his or her personal identity vibratory rates were muddled or impure. He or she could not possibly rise and merge with those above---those who had not taken the "fall"---or plunge into the deep "waters" and roaring hot "fires" of physical human body incarnation!

This reality explains the muddled myths in ancient Bible scrolls about you and me and our brother and sister "fallen angels" who were bold enough to experience the thrills, chills and frills of sensual human body existence!

The DEAD ZONE was and is a totally self-created womb (or tomb) that could safely hold our newly created human spirit selves in between human after/deaths and reincarnations. The DEAD ZONE will soon collapse, needed no more, when this awesome birth of earth as a star takes place, and all of us can break out, going beyond the DEAD ZONE back to our god SOURCE as human graduates!

Thoughts have a life of their own! They (we) are living things. The thoughts and strong feelings you and I and others have can literally take on a life of their own! Our thoughts are potent enough to create living angels, or devils.

Sadly, over millions and millions of years, the original band of 144,000 light-entity god-beings, with unlimited holy creative powers, got entrenched deeply in the birth/life/death/rebirth cycles of human existence. Most of them lost the sweet memory of those "good old days" when they each had infinite creativity and immense self-power. What survived was the "myth" of tall and mighty gods that had roamed the earth in ages past. The gods of Olympus were real.

Over these ages of dramatic earth changes, some very cataclysmic, the destitute gods in human form became more isolated from each other, and thus more primitive. Gradually, the only occasional spiritual thoughts they experienced related to the subtle, unseen movement of the wind and the constant daily rising and setting of the sun. Some had vivid out-of-body astral and "near death" experiences which led to tapping lower regions of the DEAD ZONE. This led to the deduction that a huge and awful hierarchy of spirit beings made up the realities of wind, rain, storms and other natural aspects of earth reality. This also led them to the idea of a huge pseudo "god" that ran the show---One Great Spirit---who was called "God," or whatever appropriate word designating "God" in other languages.

To even further degrade the real GOD SOURCE reality concept, they had the utter ignorance of creating this pseudo "God" with all of the worst frail human traits. A "God" of anger resides only in the DEAD ZONE. A conditional "God" that throws people in a hot burning hell forever resides only and springs forth only in the human mind (an agency of fear, thus control) and exists only in the DEAD ZONE.

The God whom I know and love with all of my spirit and human being is a God of love, a God of mercy, a God of compassion, a God of justice, ad infinitum!

This fake "God" and his right-hand overlord, the devil, have come into our minds and our earth reality straight from the DEAD ZONE. This "God" was birthed out of pure human ignorance and fearful superstition and was amplified from the DEAD ZONE. This "God" has all of the worst brutal traits and moody characteristics of its human and DEAD ZONE overlord creators! Conditional love (do what I say, or else) and childish tantrum traits or fits of very human-like anger made this seemingly almighty pseudo "God" a very real "bad character" that everyone on earth had good reason to fear mightily! That's not my God! Is it your God?

Thus, over millions of years, you and I and our predecessors by the billions upon billions have created this immense pseudo "God" gestalt. Remember, we give life to anything we think and feel! So, the ego of this DEAD ZONE "God" is humongous. It contains the residue of all the countless huge human egos that you, I and countless others have willingly given away immediately upon our after/death, "stripping" our personal vitality and self-identity in the DEAD ZONE.

Is this pseudo "God" greater than you or me? No! Think this through... You and I and other light-entity gods are first generation from our GOD SOURCE, once in hu-man god spirit, second generation from our GOD SOURCE. Through ignorance, superstition and DEAD ZONE influence, we gave birth or creation to "God" and the "devil", thus third generation from our GOD SOURCE. The first rule of creation, if you remember, is that nothing created can be more powerful and controlling than its Creator!

Once you stand clearly in the light of this knowledge, there is no reason why you, I, or any other living human who created this DEAD ZONE "God" or "devil" will ever again fear them. We are innately more powerful and potentially more knowledgeable. This objective fact will forever free us from the ugly, pernicious whims of an angry "God."

Nevertheless, that fallible humanly created angry "God" is a very real living thought form gestalt. It rules over and invades all other of the myriads of humanly formed gestalts. A gestalt is any one similar school of thought---consciously gathered together---designated as what we call Science, Religion, Government, Education, Society, Nations, etc. There can be and often are minor gestalts within any one major gestalt. Only the ONE GOD SOURCE of infinite love, grace, mercy compassion, grace, and justice deserves your total devotion! The GOLDEN AGE of that God on earth is near!

Chapter 9

THE ONE MAJOR DEAD ZONE GESTALT

As in all major gestalts, there is potential for countless other minor and minute gestalts within the one major DEAD ZONE gestalt. These countless individuated gestalts collectively form one very huge universal gestalt.

Another point worth noting is that every single human gestalt upon earth, by its very nature as a gestalt (formulated from the past), is tied into the DEAD ZONE. This is why I have stated that the DEAD ZONE now exerts a tremendously powerful influence over our daily human lives on earth. This huge pseudo "God," the "devil" and host of overlords in the DEAD ZONE gestalt have their fingers in the pie everywhere on earth---always trying to milk us of our life energy.

From major overlords to minor overseers and "keepers," the "devil" and pseudo "God" have efficiently organized a colossal hierarchy that presides over the entire DEAD ZONE. We have a reflection of this in the twelve or thirteen families now ruling all earth economy and their major committees and minor committees that buy, sell, and rule most national governments.

Each mighty inner DEAD ZONE and outer earth controlling hierarchy are tightly tied into each other. This explains why it is extremely difficult to make any breakthrough or breakaway from this permeating ungodly group control or personal control! Modern day social consciousness owes its life to its straight connection into this immense DEAD ZONE. Society dictates. If we do not follow ungodly new traditions, ugly habits and evil dictates of social consciousness, we are made to feel guilty. If we choose to follow God's laws, instead of man's laws, we are punished and made to feel guilty. Our society quickly shuns or ostracizes us, and our man made local, state or federal officials unjustly punish or penalize us when we "get out of line" in almost any way.

When you take a long keen look, there is little difference between the zombie-like servitude exacted from us in the DEAD

ZONE after/life and from the walking dead servitude exacted from us from our unseen powerful overlords and their enforcing 3-D overlords. A vampire is a vampire is a vampire!

Unless you are self-realized, who loves self and who has not guilt or regret, you are at the constant "mercy" of your DEAD ZONE overlords! You are tightly connected to many of the major and minor gestalts on earth. All of them are now manipulated as vehicles to run (and ruin) your life.

There is a way out, as we have disclosed earlier. This massive DEAD ZONE gestalt depends on having a daily input of life energy from you, me, and all the rest of us on earth in human form (that duly support it). Through the knowledge obtained in this book, you can safely break away from your DEAD ZONE overlords and keepers, even though they are resolute in their determination to keep this kind of startling new knowledge away from you!

Thank God you were drawn to this book. It is also your new responsibility when you possess this kind of helpful knowledge to pass it along to others---for the good of all earth! One by one, we will stop feeding the DEAD ZONE.

Chapter 10

THE MANY DEAD ZONE WORLDS

If you had a way of counting all of the past and present different human consciousness gestalts you would know exactly how many different major layers or realms of DEAD ZONES exist now. Each one of these may have hundreds or thousands of sub-level worlds, too! We are not going to count future forming gestalts simply because there is no long future to the DEAD ZONE---it is about to collapse.

Perhaps many readers need reminding of what a gestalt means, or greater clarification of that term. A gestalt is any collection of more than one human stream of consciousness that is interested in, and thus supporting, that collective stream of school of thought. For example, Science, Religion, and Politics are major human gestalts. A gestalt may be composed of hundreds or thousands of minor gestalts within the one major structure.

A gestalt can only continue to live if everyone in the gestalt gives their personal support and self-power to it. Once a gestalt is conceived, it naturally seeks to survive and to add more life to it. The gestalt will often use fear or threats and intimidation to keep gestalt members in line with it. This applies to any of the sub-levels within any major gestalt as well.

Masonry is a classical example of an old gestalt where high level Masons can lose their lives by giving away Masonic secrets, or violating the rules of that higher level and super secretive branch or sub-level of it!

Since every major and minor gestalt is connected to the DEAD ZONE, you will never find the learned modern day saints, sages or yogi masters belonging to any group on earth whatsoever! These great men and women have found and aim to maintain their divine individuality as god-selves. The DEAD ZONE has no power over them. They have power over the DEAD ZONE.

These endless DEAD ZONES are layered above and below each other; or, from another perspective, within, without, inside and outside of each other. In addition, there are also side-worlds and parallel-worlds, too. In short, there is an after/death place for everyone!

If you are wondering into which world you will move upon your after/death, that is fairly easy to predict! What are your strong beliefs? Where are your strong allegiances? How much do you love yourself? How much love do you have for others, and for the world surrounding your human form? How much guilt do you carry around with you? What are your regrets? How much fear do you have? How much joy do you have?

The accumulative answer to the above questions will "place" you very naturally with your own kind! You will go to that major level, and then to the appropriate higher or lower sub-level of that DEAD ZONE area that fits you exactly! In this "case" or universal "container," there is enough room for everyone.

Chapter 11

HOW ANIMALS GET INTO THE DEAD ZONE

Not only does subtle electric circuitry tie into other related human circuits, sometimes our human circuitry ties in quite strongly with our pet animals.

Animals can provide certain forms of self-validation circuitry for some humans that humans cannot! The clearly unconditional love given by some animal pets are fulfilling to some people---like no human love. Therefore, many of us on earth love our pets more than our human companions or associates.

This brings up the very vital question: do animals live in the DEAD ZONE? You great animal lovers will be tremendously glad to know the answer is a resounding yes! Your lost or favorite pet can join you in your after/life DEAD ZONE sojourn!

There are basically two ways that animals reunite with their beloved owners after their death. One is through reincarnation on earth again as another cat, dog, bird, fish or whatever animal they were before. Of course, this means that you are still alive on this grand earth in your physical human body and thereby provide your dear pet with motivation to reincarnate speedily back into another physical body in your area---so that the two of you will be attracted into each other's personal field or familiar electric circuit again. This does happen often and is why a new pet seems to have so many of the same mannerisms as one of your favorite old pets that died before you got your new pet! So "Delila", "Rufus," or "Minnie" may be back in all of his or her lovable presence---only now clad in a different "suit of clothes.."

Animals never go to the DEAD ZONE on their own! They do not have any guilt or depressing vibrations, so they go back to THE SOURCE of their god creation in pure form!

However, since you are an instant creator in the DEAD ZONE it is easy for you to recreate the image and the loving presence of any former pet you choose. Whatever thought you can conceive and hold in your mind is very real in the DEAD ZONE.

It is also an instant creation since time does not exist there. Thus, no time is needed to materialize whatever you strongly believe in!

Because of the common agreed-to belief systems that comprise the gestalt of the particular DEAD ZONE you inhabit, you will also be able to see, touch and play with the animals that your friends or associates in the DEAD ZONE have created for their pleasure, too!

If you truly love animals you will have them there with you in the DEAD ZONE. They are far better for your health and your well-being there than the often unscrupulous, inhuman and power hungry denizens you will encounter there after your death!

So certainly, take your dear pets with you after/death. They will be good company!

Chapter 12

THE MANY DEAD ZONE DENIZENS

The DEAD ZONE hosts a massive hierarchy of non-physical or weird disembodied human entities. These range from common folks like yourself, and myself to an entire elite hierarchy of holier-than-thou spirits to very low class demons to high and mighty, very jealous and angry "Gods!"

JEHOVAH, for example, illustrates a classical angry god figure who ignorantly believes he is all-knowing and all-powerful over the affairs of both the DEAD ZONE denizens and our physical earth!

Realize whenever you find a hierarchy of any kind it comes directly from the DEAD ZONE. THE SOURCE which is centered in the "core" of all human entities gives constant and equal power and equal balance for all!

On the other hand any hierarchical presentation of better/worse, good/bad, higher/lower, winner/loser, weaker/stronger, smarter/dumber, ahead/behind, above/below, etc. simply has no objective reality in fact. These are subjective evaluations or judgments. A hierarchy is only a DEAD ZONE illusion or delusion foisted on physical humankind to create jealousy, war, guilt and struggle.

As you can imagine, there are billions upon billions of denizens throughout all of the many levels of the DEAD ZONE. There is an overlord at every level, and often a massive hierarchy of in-between overlords or keepers as well at each of these finely delineated levels.

The masses in the DEAD ZONE are kept in total ignorance---the same as on earth! You cannot continue to control any individual who knows that you are secretly manipulating and maneuvering them for long! If the masses on earth truly knew what was really going on in this world it would be quickly over for them---as existing and controlling "power structures" see it! The DEAD ZONE is exactly the same. Genuine GOD knowledge is the most hated and cursed "commodity" in either of these worlds. It gives their "game" away, and who will continue to play for long against a known "stacked deck"? Only a fool!

If you are Moslem, you will congregate with Moslems who are at the same vibratory frequency wavelength---who hold somewhat the same depth or range of belief systems. If you are a Buddhist, Hindu, Jew, Christian, etc. you will commingle with those who are at the open or same intense, often blind belief patterns or set limitations as yourself! All of these major world religions usually have at least ten or more thousand sub-branches, differently professed beliefs or gestalts within them on physical earth. Thus, in the DEAD ZONE there will be an equal amount of splinter groups or gestalts, each at its own higher or lower level for each splinter group.

The scientists, educators, artists, philosophers and ordinary common man and woman will be formed into distinctive large or small groupings or gestalts which will place each uniquely distinctive gestalt at its own "high" or "low" level. There are no judges anywhere in the DEAD ZONE that direct human spirit traffic as to who goes where!

As stated before, you alone are the most severe judge of yourself! If you think you deserve a great deal of punishment for the regrets and guilt you feel over what you did or did not do while on earth during your last lifetime, that is what sets your course and propels you to the appropriate level---where you can get and feel the proper punishment you deserve!

If you love yourself, but not quite enough to transcend the DEAD ZONE and go back to physical rebirth immediately, you will be gathered in a community, in a world of reality where your love can be expressed between you and your comrades in a heavenly way and vice versa as already covered above.

Your strong personal beliefs create a vibratory rate and put you at the exactly correct level of the DEAD ZONE where you belong. When you get to review your past lifetime---for that split second---you will be the most severe judge you can imagine! No other human judge outside of yourself would ever be so harsh on you as you will be to yourself. Nothing escapes your scrutiny! After all, you had a whole lifetime of daily training on social judgment of the actions of yourself and others. It is very easy now for you to see the many faults and to as easily ignore your wonderful virtues!

The crass are gathered together in the DEAD ZONE into one huge gestalt with the crass. The same of any kind are gathered together into one great gestalt with their kind. You are what you are! That speaks out loud and clear in universal language. It puts you in your proper DEAD ZONE realm or space. You go to where you send you!

Chapter 13

YOUR MEMORY IS STRIPPED AFTER DEATH

Human embodiment--or incarnations--of light-entity beings like us first began when we experimentally ventured into human bodies on earth over ten million years ago! You can easily imagine how many repeated human incarnations some of us hard learners have had over these long, long ages...

In those early primal days, we possessed full knowledge of our former incarnations---of who we were and who we had been in that past human existence (or those before it). We maintained a continuity of consciousness! This changed drastically after a few million years when some of the bodiless light-entity beings in the DEAD ZONE liked their periods of reflection and self-contemplation so much that they wanted to stay in it rather than reincarnate in human form again.

These entities had already discovered they could not stay very long in the DEAD ZONE without a human physical body that fired off neurons, needed for constant self-regeneration. They also knew from first-hand experience that loved ones, relatives and close friends of theirs left behind on earth had given them tremendous boosts of vitality, through their mourning period of their after/death. They also observed that DEAD ZONE peers gave them added life vitality when they emitted feelings of love or high respect for them, or when they were feeling upset, guilty, angry, or depressed with them! In due time over thousands of years, some of these denizens learned how to not only secretly milk precious life-giving vitality from the newly arrived dead entering their gestalt in the DEAD ZONE, but also how to drain those individuals tied in to their electrical circuits in their gestalt in the physical earth plane as well!

Soon these keepers or overlords became super powerful in the DEAD ZONE. They developed huge egos. Most actually began to believe they were "Gods" presiding over the earth, as well as over the unsuspecting masses in the DEAD ZONE.

Since they could easily assume any shape or form they desired, they would suddenly appear in whatever appropriate saintly guise to the newly dead who would welcome them happily and would gladly give away most or all of their troubled mental and emotional pains, aches, guilt and deep regrets without hesitation! This "stripping" process was very quick! The entire electric field or released negative emotional charge that was so willingly disowned by the newly dead became the instant property of the demonic stripping overlord to use or dispense at will.

Over these long millions of years, humanity on earth steeped in religious superstition willingly gave away all or a major portion of its previous self-identity---lifetime after lifetime! The shrewd overlords of the DEAD ZONE soon learned just how much energy was needed to preserve the life of the newly arrived human spirit inhabitant of his or her gestalt. This way, instead of totally disintegrating and going back to ZERO VOIDANCE or no-thing again, the badly stripped light-entity would be left with only enough memory and self-identity to be converted into a slow-thinking personal slave of the keeper in the DEAD ZONE. In due time, he or she would be seeded back into 3-D earth to be harvested there now too, day in, day out---without mercy!

This is the gruesome experience each of us has encountered at our physical body death. As divulged earlier, I have personally undergone that shocking, painful, unforgettable memory and self-identity human spirit after/death stripping process in my after/death at age eighteen. Much is worth reiterating!

At death your entire lifelong self-memory is "pulled" out of your spirit being. In less than two split seconds you actually relive and re-experience every single moment and event in your life! Each tiny or huge event is seen, felt, relived, and very methodically judged. It seems like you have ages to examine each single ongoing "happening" that occurred every day and night of your past 3-D human lifetime...

No one stands before you as a judge, cracking a whip and pointing out where you have failed miserably. The God Almighty in you---and in you alone---has created and accepted each disconcerting one of those "burning" self-judgments. There is no one with a vested interest presiding over your death (except your DEAD ZONE keeper)!

You judge you!

All self-judgments arise from guilt which was already awaiting you in social consciousness at your conception and birth back into human body form on earth. Collective social consciousness has for long eons taught you to judge yourself harshly and to quickly judge those incarnate with you. Humans spend a lot of their daily energy simply in standing about and judging others. It is almost like a family, local, regional, national or international "pastime"!

The actual "mechanical" memory stripping process is painful beyond description. For many long years, after my after/death experience, I struggled long and vainly to adequately describe this stripping process. My closest metaphor was that it felt like my entire spirit being was on fire! That fiery pain was everywhere inside of me and totally inescapable. I could not even mentally step out of my spiritual being to break free and leave that awful, all-consuming hot pain behind! Maybe feeling the burning fires of hell was more appropriate. Perhaps this is where the idea of an after/death hell filled with fire originated. A part of me hesitated to tell others of this part of my after/death experience simply because I figured people who heard me tell of that part would judge that God had thrown me in hell (instead of heaven). The point is the pain was so terrible, words to describe it were completely inadequate.

Finally, many long years later that grand teacher who taught me how to leave my regrets and guilt behind appeared in my "school of life." While addressing a huge crowd of over 1,000 fascinated listeners, he divulged and described our memory stripping process upon after/death perfectly! Thus, I knew that he knew!

He said the most meaningful way to describe this intense burning pain everyone feels during his or her memory stripping process is to imagine having all the skin on your body scraped or torn off of every inch of your body---all at once! That was exactly the kind of pain I felt. All of us know from self-experience how much it pains or "stings" when just a small patch of our human skin is scraped off--falling off a bike and scraping skin off on the pavement! All of your afflicted nerve ganglion involved in that small area start to "scream" for help! So, now imagine that same kind of skin scraping, "fiery pain" magnified thousands of times more, and every nerve and every single cell of your body will know how painful this memory stripping process is for us after/death.

Ouch---big time!

Fortunately, at that exact moment when the last memory is extracted or pulled out of your cellular DNA structure (duplicated in your human biological spirit), the excruciating pain stops! What a giant relief. You are still very definitely in big-time electrical shock, but you now stand free in biological spirit. This is when you relive each moment of your past life in a split moment, gladly disowning or surrendering your every sorrow, agony, pain, torment, guilt and regret to your waiting "keeper" in the DEAD ZONE.

The "good" memories and deeply embedded wisdom or knowledge consciously gained and claimed, you keep. This is compared to major fields of sad but potential learning experiences you have just dumped. Your personal knowledge is embedded in what we will here term that "permanent atom" of your spiritual human being, while all of those countless unwanted or thoroughly disowned, cast off experiences provide a long and sumptuous "store" of food for your leering keeper in the DEAD ZONE.

In my own vividly experienced after/death, I refused to stop, relax, and give away my sorrowful and regretful aches and pains. I was tempted, but quickly realized it was a trap! I was resolute in my determination to go forward, to get beyond those stinging three past "failures." I wanted to go right back into my physical human body---wherever it was---and go speedily on with my life "mission" (to graduate, of course)!

However, in most cases of after/death we will innocently give away all of our earthly burdens of guilt and pain to the seemingly angelic hosts of saints and pseudo Christ-like, Allah-like, Krishna-like, Jehovah-like, etc. "divine" beings in the DEAD ZONE.

Our grinning keepers leave us upon after/death with scarcely enough memory and personal identity to maintain a clear mental focus, yet enough to insure that we will be a dependable slave or follower until the final decay of our biological spirit demands instant human reincarnation.

Our after/death stay in the DEAD ZONE realm that we personally occupy will last from an average low to a high of forty years. This is the rule, but a rule is a rule because there are exceptions! The more advanced and the less advanced individuals return to human rebirth faster. Obviously, the more advanced person is eager to get back and finish earth graduation, while the lesser advanced individual needs more "repeat" lessons!

Let me remind you again. This information is relayed from me to you not to cause fear but because I love you and want you to gain this life-saving knowledge!

Hopefully, when the shock wears off, you will seriously start to put your house in order.

Once you begin the process of loving your god-self into human existence, moment by moment, day by day, you will be able to graduate with the rest of us, before or during each star birth.

Accidents also occur in the DEAD ZONE. If you are accidentally or intentionally stripped of all of your memory, this will result in a complete loss of self-identity and an immediate human rebirth or biological spiritual death, taking you back to the void as a non-identity---a no-thing (where you first began your long and grand god sojourn into 3-D physical "reality" eons and eons ago!

This is rare, since you are a valuable commodity to your keeper, and he or she will take care to leave you with just enough human spirit self-memory to be of service while residing in the DEAD ZONE. Once reborn on earth, that feeding process by your personal keeper goes on and on lifetime after lifetime, until you wake up and realize what is happening and put a quick stop to it!

The choice to love your god-self into human body existence must be made while you are still living in your human body. Your biological spirit form (by itself) cannot love itself back into human body existence. You need a human body that is continually firing off neurons to exist on 3-D earth!

Once you are dead, upon that repeated sad recognition of your failed opportunity, you must wait patiently again for another human attempt at liberation.

On rebirth on earth, you are in retrospect devoid or unconscious of your resolve to do better this time "around"! So do it now while you physically can.

Begin consciously to appreciate greatly the divinity of THE SOURCE and of that eternal god in yourself---and in everyone else---as well as in the everything else, now! Your joy and lighted presence will encourage others to generate recognition of their god within, too. Love life passionately! Generate self-joy from moment to moment of your daily earth existence in human form now, and you will never again be food for DEAD ZONE ghouls.

Chapter 14

UNDERSTANDING POSSESSION AND SCHIZOPHRENIA

Possession sounds like a fearful thing! However, the possession of your body (by another) or of any other living human body on earth is only allowed (anywhere universally) if permission is given in advance of the possession. Permission can occur at subconscious levels, as well as at conscious level states, but without that permission no one is allowed to take over physical control of your body.

Let us also clearly differentiate between mentally projecting your consciousness into another person or thing---to register what he, she, or it is thinking or feeling. That is no invasion of their self-control sovereignty since no effort is mentally or physically made to control the thought, feeling or action of that person or thing. In that case, you are merely monitoring any chosen field around you now within your range and knowledge, but not until you consciously know how to focus your mind like a powerful laser beam.

The term possession here implies taking over the full or partial control of the physical body of another human person. Projection into allows. Possession of controls!

Take the typical case of human mind or body possession. If a person in 3-D reality was predisposed before after/death at being very "turned on" or getting a "kick" or "charge" from murdering an animal (or a human being), he or she will automatically hang around in the aura or bio-electric field area of someone in the body who is also inclined toward being a murderer. The disembodied DEAD ZONE entity will invade the mind of the unsuspecting human host and will deliberately "implant" or impress murderous thoughts into the mind of its host---one after another---until that host is pushed over the edge and commits a terrible murderous act!

This scenario precipitates a huge feast of vital energy to the invisible but very present, like-minded guest! The murderer gets a huge charge out of it and the hideous inspiring "demon" within, and behind the scenes gets an equally large charge out of the murderous act. Now, also loved ones, close friends and caring relatives of the murdered human being begin to mourn and wail the death of their dearly departed, adding more to this vampire's bloody feast! A mass murderer obviously provides these preying DEAD ZONE ogres with a sumptuous banquet. Some close caring loved ones or friends of the murdered ones, sometimes many entire families, will generate great negative charges of emotional grief and self-guilt over the incident for weeks, months, years, and occasionally an entire lifetime!

This immutable law that LIKE ATTRACTS LIKE (at inner levels) applies here. A physically embodied person with a violent, lustful, forceful fantasy of sex will attract 3-D "victims" who are fascinated with their fears of being raped or murdered! Thoughts are living things. When the violator is moved by his or her fantasy (by an invisible button-pusher inside) and actually commits brutal rape and murder, that "demon" can actually merge circuitry with the violator and look through the eyes of the violator, feeling also the tremendous aberrant sexually-charged sensations of the violator, while noting being charged itself with the fear and terror in the eyes and soul of the victim.

Both dimensions of the DEAD ONE and 3-D reality operate under the inner level law of like attracting like. So, at either end of the spatial spectrum, thieves are attracted to thieves, as is the victim of the thieves. Dope addicts are attracted to other dope addicts, etc. The ancient adage "as above so below" aptly fits here. Be careful of what you think or desire, since like does attract like!

Any person who hears voices and feels burning pains from unseen sources and who acts paranoid, psychotic or possessed has often unknowingly or inadvertently initiated a premature kundalini arousal (which is far more terrifying than a premature you know what!). A kundalini arousal by an individual not ready for those powerful electric currents will open the doorway between the DEAD ZONE and himself or herself for entry by a manipulative and possessing entity. Most of us are also very nutritionally deficient and suffer obvious beriberi. Poor health and thus poor physical body vitality can make physical body possession easier to achieve. A healthy mind and body will always act as a strong safeguard from demonic possession.

If you suspect that you or someone you love is possessed, see that you or he or she gets a great deal more sleep, rest and, if needed, safe drug treatment from competent doctors. There are now many good progesterone booster creams (made from wild yam DHEA) that can and will speedily restore hormonal balance to the body. They are far safer and far less expensive than drug treatments and hospital treatments.

The best treatment is a big dose of self-love! You may wish to add one or two hypnotherapy sessions. After that, buy some good books and learn self-hypnosis or self-suggestion. This, along with a good supply of DHEA to balance the body and hormonal system ought to bring you or your loved one right back "to snuff"!

When self-suggestion treatment is preferred, the conscious mind must be bypassed. Then a whole new set of loving god-self into existence must be programmed to your subconscious mind, or the mind of your loved one. The subconscious is huge and the conscious is tiny. Your conscious mind is like a very small wave compared to a huge ocean of unconsciousness. In a battle between the two, our subconscious always wins! Your conscious mind alone will usually not win a personal battle to attain self-balance or self-improvement. This is why conscious mind must be set aside for a moment as good new operational instructions are given to your subconscious.

This is why confirmed lifelong alcoholics who consciously know they are destroying not only their own life but the life of those they love cannot win that bout with alcohol through conscious mind decisions alone.

The problem lies or exists in the immense subconscious karmic bank (cause and effect). The solution is found through a change in the subject's subconscious. Obviously, the alcoholic is consciously looking for help, trying every consciously known formula to regain his or her lost manhood or womanhood. That is not working.

Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) works because it takes the focus off of the problem and focuses the member toward the solution in THE SOURCE (God). Through constant moment-to-moment daily inner god focus, the consuming conscious desire for consumption of alcohol is vanquished. It works!

In a case of strong physical possession, the "victim" who suffers such deep despair, depression and bouts of great family upheavals must ultimately choose to love herself or himself into human god existence. Self-suggestions of love, joy, peace and harmony day by day will eventually help overcome self-depression.

Beriberi, or nutritional body deficiency, moves methodically into three stages. First comes depression, then suicidal tendencies, and the final or worst stage is murder. At a national level this last stage is correlated to genocide.

When the afflicted schizophrenic individual finds at last a continual state of peace and joy, no disembodied spirit (or spirits) is able to feed on them anymore. A self-loving, joyous god ceases to be food for these DEAD ZONE parasites!

Along with peace and joy comes the full restoration of sleep and appetite. The usual symptom of "sleep deprivation" will vanish and the desire to eat and enjoy food again will return. If that individual takes full charge of his or her life and keeps holding a self-image of worthiness, the cure will be permanent.

A self-loving, contented, safe and balanced person has nothing to be worried or stressed out about! This kind of deep inner self-security rises openly from contact with THE SOURCE within, not from any 3-D tinsel and manmade thing or person outside of self; those are the crutches that ignorant and sleeping humanity rely on to give them a "perk." It vanishes as fast as it is felt. Only self-decentration (opposite of concentration) takes you within to that most peaceful space you can find on earth.

Think this through! Who or what do you host or harbor in your mind? Thoughts, feelings and emotions of all kinds course through our human being all the time, moment to moment of each single hour, day and night of the week, month, year, decade or lifetime. The choice of what feelings or emotions we choose to hold or focus on is totally ours. It is impossible for anyone else to make that decision for you. Train yourself to be the conscious "guardian" of what you choose to hold or dump from your divine mind. What kind of thoughts, feelings or emotions do you want to be living in your sacred "temple" of human existence? That is the question. You alone are allowed to paint the canvas of our human existence upon earth.

This is why all masters know and teach that there never has been and never will be a victim! If you focus on or hold on to any negative thoughts and feelings, then only you (none other) are responsible for what the negative wreaks in your life. God did not do it to you. You did it to you! When you begin to entertain a "victim-oriented thought" realize that without exception it came to you straight out of the DEAD ZONE!

On the other hand, when the frenzied DEAD ZONE feeders find out you no longer seize, focus in, or take the "bait," refusing to concentrate or hold onto negative thoughts and feelings anymore, they will soon weary of "baiting" or testing you---and they will go quickly somewhere else to net or fish for their next unsavory meal.

Both possession and schizophrenia will disappear from our earth when we all learn to love our god-self into existence. Only the ignorant child or adult who adopts and accepts the new worldwide "learned helplessness" state will play the unhappy or rueful victim. A truly self-reliant god-self oriented person takes quick and full charge of his or her daily thoughts, feelings, emotions and actions---knowing it was self-created as the peace, joy and exquisite human bliss fill their sacred being.

Honor and take care of your astounding and grandly divine human physical body. Choose between prevention and cure. "Food is the best medicine." ...Hippocrates

YOUR GUILT IS KILLING YOU

There is nothing as lethal or more lethal on earth than guilt! Death by electrocution, death by poison, death by murder, or death by whatever subtle or violent end or means can only kill you once! Whereas, your guilt generates perpetual conscious daily death for you! It keeps right on killing you, moment by speeding moment, lifetime upon lifetime...

Guilt will never lead you toward more life and more self-freedom. It leads always toward self-destruction and death. Guilt literally enfolds and encircles all of sphere earth---day and night without end. It permeates and smothers all of human society. It stunts all daily human activity. Guilt, guilt, guilt! You and I are all wrapped and trapped in this grim, wet, sticky human atmosphere of deadly guilt from birth to death, from the crying day we are born to our marble-hard, rigid human form laid ceremoniously in our graves.

The truly astounding "miracle" is that someone like Buddha, like Mohammed, like Jesus, like Yogananda, and other known and unknown past and present saints, yogi masters and sages ever managed to break through our countless veils and thick binding layers of personal and social guilt. How did Confucius, Lao Tse, Walter Russell, and other illumined bright lights in the history of humanity ever manage to break through our walls of guilt on earth?

Take a few moments now. Be silent and objectively examine how your stack of guilt and painful self-regrets continuously bleed through your efforts to feel joy, peace and the natural serenity or tranquility within our human god-self...feel those sinister guilt encroach on your conscious be-ing! Observe how your past and ever-present guilt clearly lead you toward repression, depression, anger and personal and national wars, and, when pushed hard enough, to outright murder!

Why hold on to one more single dot or iota of false guilt in your mind, in your emotional center, or in your physical body?

Take or make the time now to face, embrace and erase all your past regrets and guilt! Banish every towering or feeble regret and every gnawing and lingering "I should have" from your human thoughts and feelings. Drop them now like you would wisely drop a red-hot burning coal from your hand! Live guilt-free now (not tomorrow when you "have time")!

In summary, guilt kills. It leads invariably to death. It is a subtle form of self-hate! Lead yourself to self-love and self-worth. Hate destroys, but love has never injured a single soul in all of eternity! Love adds to love, and the divine overflow of love from your glowing human spirit touches and enriches those around you.

The perspective is clear: choose life or death, love or hate. It may take a far reach deep inside of you to find the strength required to personally change the habit and accept and express self-worth and self-love. Hopefully, the startling revelations found here will prompt you to make this life-giving switch. Know absolutely that every embodied human spirit on earth has the sacred strength for a sudden, lasting, complete "turn-around" for the better---deep inside of them. The very fact that you are with an open minded reading on through this book indicates you have begun the path of loving your human god-self--into existence--not out of it! Live now, not later...

The past is fully gone. Past guilt has made you "daily bread" for the grim reapers behind the scenes---in the DEAD ZONE. Your regrets and guilt are killing you. Will you stop it?

There are no victims. You are a victim only if that is your human choice. I personally do not prefer to be eaten "dead, or alive"! I am absolutely determined to love my human god-self into existence. What do you choose?

Chapter 16

LOVE YOUR GOD-SELF INTO EXISTENCE

After the death of your magnificent human body it is too late to love your god-self into existence! You are already then out of existence! The sole and whole object of any of your human incarnations is to love your god-self into human spirit existence, and thus be totally liberated.

This also means you will succeed in merging or fusing your god-light being vibratory pulsation rate with your physical body-self vibratory pulsation rate. You are liberated when both of them pulsate at the exact same frequency wave rate. The two are then jointly married or engaged as one! That means graduation from earth school, allowing you to ascend back to your GOD SOURCE. At the same time, that huge archive of knowledge accumulated and now embedded forever in your DNA and sub-atomic structures of your newly resurrected human body will "ride" or journey forward with you into the great and joyous unknown!

That then allows you to recreate your own unique wave or particle equivalent physical human embracement form in any dimension you journey to or through in your spiritual consciousness forever hereafter. You thus are enabled to replicate all of your physical body senses and any aspect or attribute of your being, at will---anytime, anywhere---in this universe, or any other. You now have the conscious power to change particles into waves, or waves into particles---at will.

In order to bring your physical body pulsation rate, or neuron firing pattern rate, or strobing rate up to speed, you will have to begin loving your god-self into existence---or and more---almost every conscious moment, day and night. The more love and joy your body feels from you, the quicker it will mature or entrain with that much faster god-self spirit pulsation of yours.

Your body is priceless beyond measure! When you are out of it and in the DEAD ZONE, you have often looked back and realized how greatly you depreciated or threw away the most important physical gift given to you by THE SOURCE. As already stated, but also worth repeating, your only recourse then is to be reborn and to try again, hoping you will remember to love your body more the next time...

However, once firmly ensconced in your new infant body you are again deeply immersed and saturated with guilt. You forgot your vow. Instead of being taught masterful control and a love for your body and your sexual gender, you are taught to feel guilt about sexuality from infancy. Instead of using excess sexual energy to feel more alive, more electric, and more sensual in every nerve and cell of your human body, you are told to deny or repress your very normal and healthy sexual feelings. You are advised that sex is dirty, nasty, wrong and sinful. Guilt over sexual issues is laced and threaded intentionally through all levels of social consciousness.

Guilt is everywhere you turn in human interaction. However, there is a way to get out of the trap of perpetual feelings of guilt while embodied in human form. This method also allows you to bypass the memory stripping process at your death! Love your god-self into existence every waking moment of life from now on, while you are still fortunate to enjoy life in your physical human body.

Promote self-feelings of love and joy, instead of more and more dismal focus on self-destructive guilt! Joy needs cultivation. It never exists in anyone, or anything, OUTSIDE OF YOU, no matter how much you delude yourself that it does. If so, the entire human population would rush to it--or to him or her! This is another very strong WRONGO IN THE CONGO! Joy only exists in the moment---and only in you---when you generate or amplify that exquisite feeling within your body! Though joy can only be found in those precious moments of self-focus upon it, guilt is perpetually nipping at your consciousness twenty-four hours a day, even in your sleep. Learn how to relax and live in the eternal now.

Joy can always be generated by you at any moment. When you live mentally or emotionally in either the dead past or the uncertain future, you have surrendered that most priceless moment of immediate reality and have shifted that precious life moment of yours into the DEAD ZONE. There you are prey to a den of hierarchical demons! You have consciously (or unconsciously) moved out of that golden opportunity of living fully in the now---and appreciating each eternal now moment---to being a ready victim of vicious parasites in the DEAD ZONE.

When you live in the now of time, your electrical and chemical body potential for joy is easily possible. Merely focus on the present moment and intensely, passionately enjoy each god you face---and each new god experience you encounter. These kind of god-life experiences have genuine spirit impact! They are self-owned, self-embraced, and self-embedded into the eternal fabric and memory of your sub-atomic particles. They are lodged now forever in the unique DNA blueprint of your human spirit self-identity. That is a 180-degree turn away from your dead past, your lifeless future, and those life-sucking DEAD ZONE parasites.

Start to love your god-self into joyous existence through right thought, feeling by feeling, action by action, and by facing, embracing, and erasing all of your lasting regrets and all present "I should have's." Leave all of them happily behind you!

Through loving your god-self into existence successfully, you can even bypass or conquer death while still alive in your human body! In this one, single, highly compressed or concentrated lifetime, you can learn to know, see, feel and love the divine god within yourself. There will then be no need to go into the DEAD ZONE as a participant. You will simply then be a divine observer.

With enough intent and focus your self-love can reach a "critical mass" and thus transmute, transfigure and transform you along with your grand body into one bright invisible white light! If so, your entire human spirit and human body self-identity will fuse together to move through and beyond the DEAD ZONE into that great universe beyond of GOD ONENESS!

Then you are certainly limitless. You are capable of roaming freely to anywhere in the universe you choose to be. You can turn your own SOURCE light into any form, size or shape, or gender that you choose---whatever, wherever and whenever. You will be able to play any game you really want to play---endlessly---without any one or any thing being able to turn off your "light" again!

Is the effort worth it? What do you think? If you are not already in this divine process of loving your god-self into human existence, start this moment! Go out and greet and meet every single treasurable human life experience in your god center called now... You can thus finally and absolutely love your god-self into everlasting, exquisitely blissful, pulsating human life passion and divine heavenly sensation. It's called living!

TURN GRAY REGRETS INTO WHITE PEARLS

There have been three great "turning points" in my life---to date! One was my personal death experience at age eighteen, which gave me insight into the reality of 3-D life as being a dream, plus the flashbacks of my pertinent ancient lifetimes in Egypt and India allowed me to know with absolute certainty that human reincarnation is fact, not speculation or fiction. That first major highlight enabled me to break away from misguided conventional religion and an orthodox science, both of which had failed to prepare me for what truly occurs in after/death. I was then resolved to search and find the real answers about GOD and life processes. It was this timely, youthful DEAD ZONE excursion which gave me a secure and sure foundation in the pursuit of genuine knowledge from the perspective of a deeply religious mystic. My death was the beginning of my life in the real sense of that word. It made me realize that Life Science was far more accurate and revealing than conventional Earth Science, which has to constantly revise theories and postulates when new science contradicts old. I soon learned that Life Science was ancient and immutable and the only absolute truth or Eternal Reality.

My second major turning point in life is when I was masterfully taught how to turn my oyster-gray lifelong regrets into shining white pearls instead! That same mentor had given me the adequate words to describe my incredibly fiery and painful memory stripping process that I described in Chapter 5. This masterful teacher convinced 197 of the 201 attendants at our desert retreat that crucial day to leave all of their guilts and regrets behind. He told us we must face our guilt and regrets of the past, one by one, or as a group, and realize we had done what we had done to harm ourselves or others in ignorance. He said not a single one of us could go another step forward in our esoteric learning until we could speak to ourselves with absolute conviction, saying the statement with great mental and emotional personal and soul feeling, "I have no regrets for any one thing I have ever thought, said or done in my entire lifetime!"

Wow! That was a real "biggie" for me! All through childhood and on through my youth, as well as through my growth into that present adulthood, I had always felt deeply guilty, unworthy and very insecure!

If any one pursuit of excellence had ever come too easily to me, I had felt uneasy. I truly felt as if I had not suffered or struggled enough to be worthy of success! From childhood on, having been baptized and raised as a member of a strict major protestant religion, deeply ingrained in me had been the "hard fact" that each and every one of us worshippers was worthless, sinful and guilty! I was erroneously taught almost every day that I was sinful and should feel incredibly guilty about it--and I sure did! Therefore, due to ignorant and misguided religious teachers, my whole life was soon burdened or weighed down with countless insignificant guilt and self-regrets. What a cruel teaching! What a long time spent in the senseless waste of sweet and innocent human life energy!

Our great teacher reiterated that none of us could go on to our next level of spirit consciously---to our "anointing of body and spirit" (in holy oil)---without totally and irrevocably erasing every single past regret and guilt from our lives...

At first, this task seemed insurmountable, beyond my ability. Fortunately, I slowly began to grasp the objective fact of precious group thought imparted to us that wonderful day. Our wise instructor explained how every single thought, feeling, emotion, and act performed by each one of us was done in sheer innocence of our great ignorance. He assured us that any unenlightened human on earth who was pushed far enough over the edge could even commit bloody murder! He went on to say that karmically each thought, feeling, emotion and act innocently and ignorantly done---even willfully against any known wisdom, in whatever given moment in our lives---was the "right" thing at that moment for us to do in our unique human life evolution. That thought, feeling, emotion, or act was simply the given lesson of that moment! It was the self-test which provided each one of our human spirits with eternal "guide posts," providing we remembered and owned them as pearls of wisdom rather than as heavy millstones hanging eternally from our necks or shackled tightly to our ankles. Guilt and regrets are gray oysters, not white pearls! They pull us back or hold us stuck in time, thus voiding further major spiritual progression.

Our beloved master teacher told us we only needed to change our perspective. He assured us all that we could each do it within our own unique being in a split moment! He revealed that this is how he had personally done it, and if he could do it we could also do it! He instructed us to use every guilt and regret as a personal self-realization. He urged us to transmute, transfigure and transform each regret into a shining white pearl instead of carrying it like a heavy back-breaking load or a soul-wrenching pain. Instead of throwing away that moment of wisdom earned, from making that "now realized" regretful action, we must extract it from our dark past and convert it into a gleaming pearl instead. Rather than repeating the same old unlearned lesson in our mind, we could now step forward with our life---carrying a huge sparking necklace of glittering pearls with us instead, each pearl containing a unique knowledge or wisdom now fully "owned" by us. As I glance (not stare) back, that day was one of the grandest learning experiences of my human life.

After his wonderful discourse, we were told to sit or lie down and to "go within" and conquer our past. I turned within with strong resolution. This was a private inner battle I knew I must win. At long last, I finally "got it"! I accepted my past innocence and ignorance. I fully repented for what I had done to myself and others. I knew the lessons. I did not need to repeat them! As I learned so well that day, we only repeat the lessons which we have not learned. A lesson very well learned and owned is no longer needed for repetition.

I dropped what seemed to be the weight of the world from my shoulders that wonderful, NO MORE REGRETS, turning-point day! I could truthfully say, "It is finished!"

Since then my mind is unburdened and more clear. My human spirit is certainly more free! I have no and do not allow any lingering doubts, guilt or regrets in my consciousness anymore. Who needs them? Instead, I catch each one of my approaching or

"gathering" regrets (or guilt) and stop them immediately in the formulative stage. I no longer let a molehill turn into a mountain! At the same time, I immediately and sternly remind myself that "I have absolutely no regrets for whatever I have done that day." If I have wronged anyone, I am genuinely penitent. I accept the fact that "I now know the error of my ways" and without guilt make it another glittering pearl in my growing necklace of them.

I strongly suggest that you re-read this chapter many times, and that you make this day(tomorrow never comes) a grand and special turning point for you, as well. Then pass it along, like I have to you.

If I can do it, surely you can do it; and it feels so good!

My third huge human life "turn around" was the discovery of Sai Baba on earth...in human embodiment...in India.

Chapter 18

THE SEEDING, HARVESTING AND RE-SEEDING OF HUMANITY

The hard, awful fact is if you have any guilt or regrets of any size or form in your consciousness, you are food for the DEAD ZONE.

Think for a moment. What have you ever thought, felt or done (just today) that you consciously wish you could change---at this moment? I warn you, whenever you think or say "I should have," accompanied as a rule by guilty and regretful feelings you are immediately interfacing with denizens of the DEAD ZONE who are eagerly harvesting or feeding on you! One of your sustained, lifelong regrets provides your overlord and keeper with a lifetime harvest.

The following seven chapters will address major human areas that are being studiously harvested by bodiless spirits, overlords, keepers and a demonic hierarchy of seemingly beneficent, loving, or often angry "Gods." Since there are some population statisticians that estimate there are up to seven billion humans now incarnate upon our earth (1996), this adds up to a huge harvest. Almost every single human alive today seems to be in a constant stressful state of struggle, anguish, turmoil, boundless regret and overwhelming self-guilt. Add divided groups, religious, and national struggles and the many widely practiced self-destruct modes, and you can realize the huge delectable "banquets" we innocently provide for our greedy, behind-the-world-scene overlord vampires.

There is another added grim facet to this gruesome picture. We have been harvested like this now for over a million years on earth. Can you imagine the awesome accumulation of knowledge and power given away by us and now owned by this immense dark force in the DEAD ZONE at this time in history?

This metaphor has been used before, but also bears repeating. We may correlate our mass of earth humanity to an immense, well-kept herd of milk cows, with a few stray controlling bulls thrown in! The bulls are, of course, the few powerful family members and their rich allies that own and control the resources of planet Earth between them! They have title or controlling interest in all of the money (Federal Reserve), most of the land, and most mineral rights on these lands which includes our rare and very precious drinking water.

Nevertheless, here too, whether they realize it or not and whether they like it or not, these bulls playing god over us are also controlled and owned lock, stock and barrel by the DEAD ZONE overlords!

The invisible owners or keepers of us "cows" follow the same timeless procedure. After/death, each one of us cows is pulled off pasture and methodically and almost thoroughly stripped and milked of our heavy but valuable regrets or guilt and self-memory, leaving very little core self-identity left. This provides them with food, fuel and power, along with a tremendous bonanza of "pearls of human experiences" which adds to their bank of mental knowledge.

We are then allowed to graze for a while in our new DEAD ZONE pastures, but often are milked there from time to time. While inhabiting the DEAD ZONE, we are left with only enough meager memory and self-identity to allow us a few short years of self-contemplation---before rebirth (re-seeding). Naturally, we are rebirthed almost totally devoid of any former memory and experience. Only the impact god-self former life experiences that were embedded in our sub-atomic level of our being are retained. This accounts for our former lifetime recalls or instant recognition of someone we loved or hated in a past existence.

Imagine it! This ceaseless repetitive cycle of human spirit birth/harvest/death/harvest/rebirth/harvest has been going on and on for a million or more years. Yet, this has been the best, well-kept secret in all of human history! It is this strong influence from the DEAD ZONE that keeps us in the Western world from even knowing about or believing in reincarnation. The DEAD ZONE overlords do not want you to know that when you die you go to the DEAD ZONE, examine your past life, and then come back in for another rebirth until you are fortunate enough to "wake up" and graduate.

Where do you go to obtain knowledge about life after/death and about the DEAD ZONE? You certainly did not read or hear about this from your Religion, or from your Science! Though I must admit that earth sciences are slowly beginning to tear away more and more of the veils of illusion concerning reality and toward understanding some of the basic Life Science laws and cosmic principles. We are holograms.

Had the knowledge contained and presented to you in this volume been known a million years ago by the masses, you and I would be full-blown Christed Masters, instead of dumb cows put "out to pasture" lifetime after lifetime after lifetime, with no seeming end in sight...

These endless, heartless cycles of "fanning" human greed, malice, guilt, anger, lust and hate in our human thoughts, feelings and life experiences---thus, sowing discontent and harvesting us--- have been formulated into an exact science by these crafty DEAD ZONE overlords. At the same time, their continued or prolonged success of the eons was dependent on keeping secret this knowledge you are now discovering in this volume!

Soon, however, enough of us will learn how to love our god-selves into existence, removing ourselves from the grim harvesting cycle and the DEAD ZONE will most assuredly then collapse! That self-enlightenment process is now in full swing.

As you will find out in proceeding chapters, whenever there is a lull or prolonged period of time without any massive negative human spirit events on earth, abrupt new diabolical and seemingly beneficial "additives" are channeled into humanity to stir up new energy disruption patterns and thus to foster and fester more human guilt and more human discord (dis-chord). All come from the DEAD ZONE!

You will probably be greatly surprised at what seemingly innocent human vehicles are being used to set up or sow new seeds of human discontent, malice, depression, anger and explosive human violence. All of these "fruits" are then quickly and gleefully harvested by our visible physical plane economic whores and harlots (though still hidden behind the curtains of the theater-in-the-round upon earth) and by their invisible, but very real, counterparts and exacting overlords, directing and controlling us all by their unholy guidance and base motivations fed into all of us by our dark rulers in the DEAD ZONE.

Chapter 19

THE ROLE OF RELIGION

The "big three" or the seven major sources of worldwide generation of food for the DEAD ZONE overlords also have many divisions and sub-levels or layers within them---especially, Religion, one of the big three! They tie into each other as supportive gestalts. War cannot be separated from economy since profit or sheer greed has been the motive behind every war!

Most major world religions have up to then thousand different layers or branches and subdivisions within them. However, though most of these old traditional religions generate mass human thoughts and feelings of self-guilt, not all of them do. Some actually train their devotees toward a more positive attitude about themselves and life in general. As a rule, church members are regarded as "worthless sinners"! And they are expected to make up for their sins by worshipping a very human-like "God" (straight from the DEAD ZONE) who is vengeful, possessive and angry! Who needs a "God" to be feared mightily by all upon earth? Where is the love?

Every single religion without exception began its existence as a new and often greatly disdained "cult"! Most religions claim that their church holds the "one truth" and knows the "one way" to your and my salvation. This is often entirely opposite of what their religious founder taught them.

Few within the leadership or membership of these huge cults or churches seem to realize that human truth is always a subjective belief, not an objective fact! The overlords of the DEAD ZONE know the difference! They rub hands together and revel gleefully every time someone argues his or her ignorant subjective truth against the equally ignorant subjective truth of another religious devotee. This generates lots of emotional sparks. It makes a grand meal for the particular keepers of the two (or more) entities in such an absurd and personal great war over their blind subjective stand or "truth" about someone or something! Zealous and fanatical arguments over truth have probably served up more "big Macs" to the overlords and other "big eaters" in the DEAD ZONE than any other single issue in the entire world!

In our Western world, the Jews, Catholics and Protestants are usually at bitter odds with each other, thus generating plenty of daily banquets in the DEAD ZONE.

All of the fanatic elements in Religion are at great odds with each other. Religion is natural and right. We need it in our minds, in our hearts, and in our lives. However, when you see in the Eastern world how orthodox Hindus, Moslems and Buddhists are at angry odds with each other, too, you can realize why religion is a primary generator for food for the DEAD ZONE demons and their holier-than-thou host of overlords and jealous and angry "Gods."

The Jews are made to feel guilty because their family line killed the man Jesus 2000 years ago. The Christians feel guilty because Jesus died on the cross for their sins, so the story goes!

On the other hand, most religions correctly teach that we should feel guilty and penitent over "wrong" thoughts, wrong feelings, and wrong actions. But when they teach you to hold on to that guilt or that someone else is going to live or die for your guilt, they go too far. A guilt is simply a lesson on "right" and "wrong" that our god within tells us. When religion in the West offers you and me a "Jesus saves" solution for our own guilt, they cross the line. Jesus cannot nor would suffer your guilt for you! Not even your mother or your neighbor or very best friend can do your suffering for you! How utterly absurd! You worked for that suffering; you earned it, in this lifetime or another! It belongs solely to you, never to another as the DEAD ZONE overlords would like you to believe! Only the grace of God directly bestowed from Him to you (called divine intervention) can balance or erase a past "bad" deed that you have not yet accounted for, or paid in full...

Where on earth would you ever get your own personal experience and your unique karma and self-growth if your life lessons were done by your mother, or a friend? You alone either learn that lesson or you go back (or move ahead) and repeat the same painful experience, over and over endlessly, until you do learn it. I can't learn your lesson for you nor would you wish me to. It does not work!

No one goes back to pure GOD SOURCE as a human school graduate until they have experienced human life and learned from everything or everyone they have encountered. A sage or great "Saint" or a yogi master may instruct you, and they may even "show" you the way (usually by self-example), and though they lead the way, you must walk in your own shoes! Only you can rightfully choose or make and take which pathways need to be taken by you to find your great god-self identity!

Each single divine one of us "many gods" Must take this struggling journey through human life---through and beyond the DEAD ZONE alone. The quickest way "home" is to stop hating yourself (and others) to death...and to start loving your good-self into human existence!

Religion has artfully been misused to feed denizens of the DEAD ZONE for ages and ages. The DEAD ZONE overlords actually fight each other to be "top dog" over religious hierarchies on physical earth.

Religion of the world needs your help and my help to shed more light, not instruction that makes anyone feel more guilt and regret than they already carry, or nonsense that someone else will live their life, or take their karmic load for them.

THE ROLE OF POLITICS

The DEAD ZONE role of politics cannot easily be separated from the role of government. With scant exception, politicians betray both their constituents and their nation at the same time--- all for greed and power. The slime and skullduggery in politics defies count and description. Politics is one arena where the most loathsome and dastardly deeds are committed, pitting brother against brother, family against family, and nation against nation--- and controlled by a powerful small group pitted against all humanity and civilization in general.

The evil of politics extends into our courtrooms and judicial systems. It is now in the West almost impossible to find a judge or a lawyer that does not violate his constitutional oath of office, or the morals and ethics of his or her profession! There are also outstanding exceptions to this rule, like a most honorable Jerry Spence, but this is rare. In the main, politicians, judges and lawyers are up to their ears in crime, graft, bribery, lying, cheating and stealing from everyone, including their own families.

Many prominent judges and lawyers are the worst criminals on earth. They will resort to anything and everything of a low nature that fulfills their unending greed for money and their lust for power over others and fleeting fame. Murder, blackmail, and outright cold-blooded assassination, performed through stealth by secret agents of our government, are the sickening norm, not the exception! The innocent and honorable new statesmen and women, or honest citizens, are slaughtered if they stand in the way or threaten to "blow the whistle." It is no exaggeration to say the lowest scum on earth have consorted, wormed and wiggled their way, kissing the feet of everyone before them to climb to the top rung of the dung-heap in politics.

Politicians swear not to while running for office and then invariably raise taxes for added government waste or expenditure of money. This "vampire energy" goes directly into the DEAD ZONE. Every time that soul-less politician steps up to vote for more taxation against you, heaping more labor with less return to you, thus more grief and more human struggle, he or she acts directly like the "right hand" of your overlords and keepers of the DEAD ZONE. Every time you and I are bled of human energy in any way through these ruthless, unconscionable political machinations, by our supposed elected "servant," they serve up another meal of us to our invisible rulers. The DEAD ZONE denizens love it! Those who run earth on the physical plane level have pushed, pulled, shoved, tripped, and cunningly stolen hand-counted or computer-counted voting ballots right from under our eyes---to make sure the most corrupt man or woman of their choice assumes a top position of public "trust." What a sham! (Shame!)

By far, the worst hypocrites on earth are the bought and paid for clergy, politicians, judges, lawyers, bankers and business leaders. Of course, there are a few genuinely honest human souls among them, but relatively few. So many of the above-listed men and women are outright liars, cheats, thieves, betrayers and parasites who often turn into callous murderers if someone stands in their way. If you are a member of one of these above-mentioned professions and are indeed a noble, honest and worthy human being, congratulate yourself for that! However, unless you are totally naive, ignorant and self-deluding, most of you who wear it, know the shoe fits. Where are the noble great statesmen (and women) of long ago who proudly served their nation under God?

Politics is the heart of the "beast." And by the very nature of the beast and its insatiable lust for greed and power, politics and base politicians create an ongoing rich harvest of the most vile human emotions possible, from demonic child pornography, sex slavery, satanic death rituals, lust, blackmail, drug traffic and murder. The once proud USA is now the crime "capital" of the world. In 1995 there were more murders in New York City (about 15 million population at most) than in all of Japan (over 200 million population). Why have you and I allowed this to happen to our posterity? Why have we allowed criminals to govern us? No decent "line" is drawn anywhere, for in "situational ethics" there is no conscience---everything and anything goes! :look at Waco; look at Weaver, Idaho housewife; look at Oklahoma City! No one paid for these crimes. How did this happen?

The answer is that you and I, the sleeping world citizens, have allowed these travesties against we the people to occur. There are a few among us who are finally waking up and demanding "an accounting" from our government and the lowly politicians that run it. However, unless strong "grass roots" movements accelerate in that direction no changes will occur. If you are truly loving your god-self into existence, you will stand forth and demand honest government servants. The problem is evident, and the solution is clear.

Throw the bums out! Take office yourself, if necessary, Educate yourself. Know clearly who is doing what! Insist that all elections go back to hand counting of ballots. Computers are too easily manipulated by those in power already.

Ask yourself: is your government as it now stands your best friend or your worst enemy---and act accordingly. Vote in only those who will serve you, instead of serving themselves. Why vote for anyone that raises his or her salary in government, and then cuts aid to the very poor that are jobless and often homeless? Those currently in high government office are there to serve themselves and their tremendously powerful masters, not you. Give them their long overdue "walking papers"! If not, you will slowly but surely continue to be "eaten alive," both on the physical plane by your trusted local, regional, or national politicians and their stern overlords (the twelve or thirteen families), as well as by the happy denizens in the DEAD ZONE who feast royally on your guilt, frustration, anger, depression and a host of other stressful and deadly reactions caused by the treacherous voting of our despicable politicians on earth today.

It really does not have to be this kind of a sad political world that we live in. It is only this way because we have allowed the scum of earth to cunningly deceive us, to contrive, spin and weave their way to the top! I am sure you will agree that the "tops" of these moldy old political trees need speedy pruning!

Every top (or even bottom) crafty, deceitful politician you "cut off" means you have just cut off serving yourself up as a meal that many times less to your visible or invisible earth keepers and your very invisible DEAD ZONE keepers.

Over the years you have been given a public course by our government on "learned helplessness." In short, you have been taught that you are helpless without support from government! Your government will assure you that what they are about to do to you is for your own good (like inoculations or vaccinations) (of AIDS)?

How many times have we heard that story? When I personally hear that lie, my self survival alarm system goes off immediately. I then refuse to turn my back on a corrupt agency that furthers taxes and tries to lull or delude me into thinking or believing that further severances of any parts and pieces of my personal savings or fortunes and self-integrity are "good" for me! What is truly and divinely good for me is that I start loving my god-self into human existence and that I stop being eaten alive anymore by keepers in the DEAD ZONE. That is certainly my political choice! Both possession and schizophrenia will disappear from our earth when we all learn to love our god-self into existence. Only the ignorant child or adult who adopts and accepts the new worldwide "learned helplessness" state will play the unhappy or rueful victim. A truly self-reliant god-self oriented person takes quick and full charge of his or her daily thoughts, feelings, emotions and actions---knowing it was self-created as the peace, joy and exquisite human bliss fill their sacred being.

Honor and take care of your astounding and grandly divine human physical body. Choose between prevention and cure. "Food is the best medicine." ...Hippocrates

THE ROLE OF WAR

You are aware of what Religion and Politics can do to stir up worldwide strife, so you can imagine the horrendously long and satisfying feast any war presents to DEAD ZONE keepers. War is war. A war with a marriage partner in a home is war. Civil wars, national wars, and world wars are continuous banquets to the top dog "Gods" and their hosts of hierarchical heavy feeders in the DEAD ZONE. During any war, the moment to moment, hourly, daily, weekly monthly or annual toll of mental, emotional and physical human suffering, injury, pain, and death begins to mount and mount! This sinking sea of stark human misery evokes waves upon waves of personal regret and guilt in all involved except, of course, the callous earthly architects of the war, and their manipulating, thrilled DEAD ZONE overlord vampires or parasites!

The guilt and regrets of any sustained and bloody war grows and glows as family members, husbands, wives, parents, children, relatives and close neighbors---and countless homeless and innocent children---are killed, injured, wounded, captured, tortured and often driven stark raving mad! Every cruel and raw essence of these atrocious sub-human actions and guilt-ridden sorrowful reactions provides a new basis for a sweet snack or a full-course meal for the hovering, grinning DEAD ZONE denizens involved.

The DEAD ZONE overlords love war! Whether a giant world war or a seemingly insignificant business war, or a personal household war between husband and wife, between sister and sister, between brother and brother, or between friend and friend gives them added life and added power. All wars, no matter where they take place and no matter what size or about what, are deftly staged, engineered, or maneuvered from the DEAD ZONE.

This should give us serious "food for thought" in obvious ways. The next time we begin to launch an all-out or full-scale war with our neighbor or a loved one, or a treasured friend, or whomever, stop! Realize you and your opponent both are about to be a tasty sweet snack or a succulent grand feast for both of your keepers in the DEAD ZONE. War is never productive. Regard everyone as your friend, and you have no enemies.

Wars have been caused by greed going back as far as the early days of Babylon. Goldsmiths entrusted with crafting huge amounts of gold betrayed their trust by secretly and illegally loaning the gold owned by others and supposedly in their "safe keeping to the highest bidders at huge interest rates. These thieving and very cunning early "bankers" quickly discovered they could especially make a quick and huge profit by loaning their entrusted gold to the local power-hungry baron or king who wanted to make war with his enemy. These conniving and heartless goldsmith bankers even more quickly realized they could double their earnings by secretly financing both warring barons or kings! This actually helped prolong the war and made even more than double their money!

The next step in human greed was obvious. These parasite goldsmith bankers were not stupid...It was obvious to them that if war was so profitable, why not start or stage wars at will, anywhere they could? They did, and have, up through all of human history. Imagine what the Bosnia/Serb war is making in money for the war machine makers: the munitions industry, the aircraft, tank and artillery industries, the reconstruction industries and, of course, the banking industry that keeps the war machinery purring.

All wars from that fateful day of greed filled human realization have been set up or maneuvered and initiated to further increase the leverage or holdings of these human parasites who control the currency of the earth. By the year 1500, one of the leading goldsmith families were already "worth" over a billion dollars! You can easily imagine what that one family (and the other dozen or so families) owns and controls on earth today. The new billionaires like Gates and Perot do not have "peanuts" compared to them!

These dozen or more families own or exert control over the Federal Reserve, thus all of the major money in the entire world! They own most of the land, mineral rights, and real estate of the world! They literally have a One World Corporate control of earth, making genuine free trade between corporations or nations impossible! The political term "free trade" is a complete sham.

Think about what these few "mighty" families have done, at whatever human bloodshed and misery cost, to achieve this iron-clad "one world" human control. Though these powerful families (and their appointed dupes in government and law enforcement) believe they are running our world affairs (aided by bought government and bought media), they are not! The absolute real bosses are the unknown, unseen mighty overlords in the DEAD ZONE. These demonic overlords use these heartless families as their front-line dupes! These overlords are the invisible "button" pushers. They have deftly tied directly into the mental, emotional, and physical circuitry of their "alive" 3-D human parasite counterparts! The "elite" controlling human families and their secret committees are merely subservient "automatons!" There is definitely a false "God" and a false "Jehovah" and other such ego-centered but no mistake about it powerful and very knowledgeable demonic spirit overlords "running" these families, using them to run the "show" on earth! The entire human "Evil Empire" is run by DEAD ZONE overlords, or The Dark Brotherhood!

These elite families, their dupes, the law enforcers, and the huge array of countless diverse billion dollar drug and chemical corporations simply play their parts, like mindless zombies (while in their head, they play at being Olympian gods)! What an ironic but sad joke! The aim of the war game is to create as much human conflict, stress and conflict as possible. This ultimately leads to further guilt and an even greater harvest of humankind energy.

Wars bring great abundance into the DEAD ZONE which lasts them for decades. A "good" world war will provide a steady stream of delectable feasts and banquets for the jubilant and totally evil DEAD ZONE manipulators.

This does not mean these merciless elite families (and their ignorant government or law enforcement dupes) are merely innocent victims, too! Indeed, not. They have willfully and consciously chosen the dark path of earth rather than the lighted path of life. All of the above will die a physical human death, unless they awaken and reverse their course, like I have (and, hopefully, you have). Each and every single one of them is fully responsible (as well as those bought and paid for dupes that serve them) for his or her evil decision. The universal law is: what you take you lose, what you surrender you gain!

Learn to keep a distance from the DEAD ZONE overlords. If you have begun to start loving your god-self into human existence, the demons behind human life drama will lose their power to sway your decision. That means you have consciously chosen life! DEAD ZONE denizens can only feed of what is decaying or dead.

Hopefully, you now know the challenge or problem here. Your solution is to start world peace in yourself. End all wars! It not only takes two to tango, it also takes two to make war! Make sweet love and eternal god peace instead!

THE ROLE OF MAJOR SPORTS

This will surprise most of my already astounded readers! The winning or losing of any game or sport generates an almost equal amount of guilt in winners, even though the game has been won fairly. Therefore, the misuse of sporting events to help feed the DEAD ZONE vultures has been going on through antiquity. It began long, long before the brutal historically recorded Roman gladiator combats, with almost always certain death of the loser.

Today, sports are not so obviously deadly. However, players often get deadly vicious in some sports, like ice hockey, boxing and football.

Anyone with a sensitive soul will agree that boxing and mauling some other human being, often beating them unmercifully, is not fun. It is more often very serious business. Big bucks may ride on who wins, or who loses. That now applies to most sports, though it is more apparent in horse races or dog races.

The grim DEAD ZONE reapers found out early in dawning history that any personal or group struggle pitted against another person or group caused a winner/loser or an ego-fed hierarchical situation ripe for plucking. Combat produced waves of guilt and waves of regret by both winner and loser. Even done in fun, a certain negative charge was detected from the winner (as well as the loser), so it rapidly became another "basic recipe" for more foul food for the DEAD ZONE!

In national and international sports, like the Olympics, the stakes are very high. Both winners and losers are highly emotionally-charged over the events---as players and spectators. Those energies can now be skillfully reaped during the game, and after the game.

Though most major sports, except boxing, do not carry the earmarks of human potential for a great measure of brutality, there is always the possibility for an unexpected fall or a major injury, and even death. However, these kinds of deaths or injuries in most of the national or international sport competitions are more refined, more unusual and less dangerous than the public display of deadly brutality (clapped and hooted for) in gladiator days.

We are cultivated from early childhood to engage and be competitive in sports of various kinds. Instant self-validation comes to the winners as adult praise is heaped on them. Losers simply can only hang their little heads in shame. They were just branded a loser and feel deep regrets about not being able to make the right moves during a game. What a sumptuous DEAD ZONE feast!

Naturally, everyone wants to be a winner when such obvious immediate rewards come rushing back to him or her. Competition against others (instead of against self---trying to get better) often produces a situation where winning is the sole and determined aim, through whatever devious means!

Cheaters are "born" as players resort to lies and deception to win. Games are created and played to increase the ability of the player to be deceptive. After winning this way, naturally the winner (as well as the loser) feels guilt for his or her deception. It is in either case a win/win for the guiding DEAD ZONE hierarchy. They make a sure meal out of the player either way---once the game has begun---win or lose.

Imagine all of the countless gamblers that bet on some sports event during every hour of the day. Business is constantly going on worldwide. You can imagine how much guilt is sown and reaped just from the gambling gestalt involved in, or tied into, sports alone.

In these modern times on earth, every country in the world has developed several favorite sports in which they excel. Every such nation wants to have the best team in the world or the top known athlete in the world! Winning brings a temporary high to all involved. Losing adds one more agonizing reason for the constant loser to feel unworthy, regretful, guilty and angry---netting a bountiful harvest for the real but invisible winners behind stage---who eagerly await those new "shots" or high charges of extra human life energy which they can consume.

On the other hand, when playing against yourself, sports are a wonderful form of exercise for body and mind, for young and elderly. A well-coordinated body results in a well-coordinated mind, since body and mind cannot really be separated. And I do want it understood I do not advocate that you or your children "should" stop engaging in competitive sports. I played professional basketball in my youth. I would not "should" on you like that; shoulding on people always stinks!

However, I do recommend a change of attitude or perspective for you and for your children about sports. Never play to win against another! Always play the best game inside of you for your god-self and always to improve over your last game. Make your game or sport a great opportunity to master coordination of your body and mind, not a competition against another to be a winner! The only question worth asking yourself after your game is, win or lose: did I do the best I could? If not, no *regret---*just the pearl of wisdom that you could do better! Either way, it was just a game, so go ahead and feel good about it.

Instead of making major sports an open and inviting arena for gamblers and criminals to win and lose fortunes, make it non-competitive (in relation to the other players or the team). If you merely seek out the best players or the best teams you can play while growing up, you will improve your ability to excel in that sport quickly. That is how I got to be a professional in the sports field. Getting better every day is the prize!

Instead of feeding the DEAD ZONE through an attitude of winning or losing competitively with others in sports, build your own self-respect, your own self-confidence, and your own good self-worth. Then you are genuinely loving your own god-self into human existence.

Turn the tables on your keepers! Instead of sports ruling you and setting you up for another delicious meal by some ugly DEAD ZONE ogre, you rule the sport! Play it your way; you be a sure winner! Love your own greater god-self into existence with you, and win the entire world at the same time!

Chapter 23

THE ROLE OF SCIENCE

Hardly anyone would think our hallowed earth science, which is always making every attempt possible to be objective, would or could be a tool of the DEAD ZONE overlords, to harvest energy from humanity.

A little focused thought here may change your perspective. To your knowledge, what has been the major use of science, almost from earliest days of conception? You guessed it! To develop and produce more and more refined gadgets, tools, or machines for killing people! Far before gun powder was invented, a plethora of strange slings, gadgets and assorted deadly traps were invented---to be used in war!

Science has produced gunpowder, atomic and nuclear bombs to laser and particle beam weapons that could easily kill everyone living on earth within hours! What is coming up next? Since inception, science has been misused. Instead of bringing forth the GOLDEN AGE, which it could have done centuries ago, it has reduced humanity into a materialistic and crime-ridden society. Science (like government) has not been used for the social and cultural welfare or advancement of humankind, but against it.

NOW HEAR THIS! Whether you realize it or not, it is "wake up" time! The seemingly most benign to the most horrendous kind of human invention came straight from the DEAD ZONE! All new inventions were "brought through" to stir up revolution or sudden change in society. Abrupt changes produce great stress, and stress always gets the pot to cooking or creating new DEAD ZONE fields to harvest.

NOW HEAR THIS, AS WELL! The greatest scientists in the universe are not living on earth today (or were living on earth yesteryear); they are living in the DEAD ZONE. This is because that tremendous pool of sparkling knowledge and 3-D information known to humankind is stored (and well-guarded) in the DEAD ZONE! All of the greatest thoughts and ideas known in all time are stored and used against us in the DEAD ZONE. Some of the most brilliant scientists that died hundreds of years ago are still "alive" and pressed into service by the DEAD ZONE overlords. They are treated like royalty, and kept alive there over the centuries for the sole intent of thinking up appropriate new earth inventions. Once these new ideas are channeled into the mind of someone on earth, they are picked up and used by big business to bring rapid economic changes---producing that new field ready for harvesting.

These old inventive "wizards" in the DEAD ZONE know a whole lot about earth sciences. This is their life. It is all they care about. They also continually want to know more. These same invisible, but certainly quite alive and very wise, scientists in the DEAD ZONE are instructed by their beneficent (to them) overlords as to when and where to introduce their new invention upon earth and precisely to whom! That invention is usually telepathically channeled into the mind and hands of someone in the science gestalt on earth, or to someone strongly connected to the money gestalt, especially if they want that new invention to become available for quick mass human usage worldwide (like the automobile to Henry Ford).

The usual method of introducing the new earth invention is during sleep when the recipient is in the deep dreaming stage. All of your and my dreams have a direct pathway into the DEAD ZONE. This is why I used self-suggestion through the dream state when I wanted to make face-to-face contact consciously with my brother Richard when he died.

Have you ever seriously wondered about why your long and exciting best dreams seem to vanish instantly from your conscious memory when you awaken in 3-D reality? The reason few of your "far out" dreams are ever recorded and remembered upon awakening is because of this direct pathway from the dream state into the DEAD ZONE.

As you journey out in dreamland you must pass out of physical 3-D reality through that DEAD ZONE bio-electric wet field surrounding your body. Once through it, you can then venture out into an infinite field of different dream level worlds to engage in whatever exciting adventures or life lessons you wish. However, on your sudden way back into your physical brain, due to some 3-D sound or basic survival instinct, you must once again pass through that DEAD ZONE area connected to your bio-electric field.

If you stop and dally too long in that DEAD ZONE area on your return trip to your body from your dream world adventure, the denizens always lurking in throngs in the DEAD ZONE will "strip" it away from you! This is why you are fortunate if you even remember vague bits and pieces of a long, sensuous and exciting encounter with a dream lover, or a meeting with a deceased friend or deceased loved one---still living in the DEAD ZONE. When the DEAD ZONE pseudo "God" or higher echelon overlords see a slowing down of their own immediate massive growth due to waning earth harvests, they quickly feed the desired new earth invention into the mind of the chosen "would-be" 3-D inventor. The why and how of the new blueprint for the gadget or machine is conceived or mentally dropped into his or her lap. This vital information is timed to perfection. It is fed into the conscious mind of the dreamer after returning through the DEAD ZONE, so that it will remain embedded in consciousness as he or she returns into his or her physical brain and dense human body.

You can imagine how excited the inventor feels when this sudden invisible gift is "miraculously" dropped into his or her lap! If all goes as well-planned, the new idea or invention will soon be in production and marketed and used worldwide. With its arrival, new fields of competition in the scientific and business gestalts will open up. Confusion will reign again on earth, as old jobs are lost and new jobs appear, and humankind involved must sell old homes and buy new homes in other parts of the country or abroad. The net result: old businesses will fall, new businesses will rise. This creates a vast and sudden new vortex of worldwide unrest and fierce competition, much anxiety, aching fear, and broad new fields of 3-D earth to harvest.

These huge and dramatic new earth plane revolutions also produce overt or subtle changes in the DEAD ZONE hierarchy, too. Like on mirror earth, old workers are discharged, shifted around and new and more devious ones are elevated to help orchestrate the new scientific fields of harvest more effectively.

Science could be used on earth in a positive and life-giving way, but not until a huge shift in mass human consciousness occurs. When that day comes, and it is coming up fast, science now used for the wholesale destruction of human kind will bring swift earth changes and all of us on earth will flourish beyond our imagination.

It must be noted here, as India---led by the avatar Sai Baba--- moves steadily back into a GOLDEN AGE, it is the only country on earth where the conquest of death has been an ageless tradition. As the USA and other Western nations learn how to love their god-selves into existence, death will also be conquered there. In the dark and sad present, they continue to acquire and build more and more very diabolical electrical and biochemical gadgets and life-forms used to destroy divine human life, while India calmly and patiently teaches all who have ears to hear to cherish, honor and resurrect all forms of life.

TELEVISION, MOVIES, RAUCOUS MUSIC, AND DRUGS

Most of the same parasitic and soul-less few "elite" families and their zombie dupes that mislead World Religion, World Politics, and World Economics have an iron grip control of all major media sources! This includes television stations, radio stations, newspapers, book publishing, magazines, movie entertainment and business news. what you now see and hear is only what you are allowed to see and hear! The news media is used generally for (1) Dis-information, (2) Mis-information, (3) False information, (4) De-bunking Truth, and (5) No information.

The real truth is probably 180 degrees around: the exact opposite of what is reported or shown (out of context). You are supposed to see, read and hear only what the dupes of the DEAD ZONE overlords wish you to think or feel.

Think it through...The dark reign of DEAD ZONE forces in both the inner and outer worlds of the exterior 3-D plane would collapse if all of the amazing world truths were known! This is why anything and everything "goes." These demonic forces will use outright cold-blooded murder (usually presented by media as a suicide) to intimidate those who would present the hard true facts to the public. resident John F. Kennedy was publicly assassinated because he made the fatal error of telling "trusted" inner circle confidants he had issued a new large sum of office USA paper money currency that was going to break away from the tight worldwide Federal Reserve system control that puts our country into such huge debt. He was also going to "spill the beans" about the CIA and its hand in starting and running the ever growing international drug trade out of South America. He very effectively signed his death warrant with that unwise disclosure to unwisely trusted friends!

That swift public assassination of President Kennedy was also a direct worldwide message to anyone else who threatened to even think of revealing or disrupting the earth control of these immense DEAD ZONE "powers that be" on 3-D earth today. As well recorded, suddenly scores of key eye witnesses and honest informed media reporters who knew and were about to tell the real story behind the assassination abruptly died of sudden suicide, of strange fatal accidents and mysterious lethal illnesses. Key judges themselves involved were appointed heads of the Warren Commission, just to make sure that all of the known, clearly revealing and darkly implicating records and witness testimony disclosing a conspiracy were publicly sealed (for your and my good, of course)!(?)

Less than five percent of television broadcasting is used for the public good. The rest is used to harvest humanity in every possible way, using guile, deceit, the telling of outright lies, and as the prime media tool for mind control over the innocently sleeping public masses.

Television is one of the DEAD ZONE inventions that, placed in the proper spiritual hands, would transform earth into a paradise almost overnight in which event the DEAD ZONE would shrink proportionately as immediately. Demons cannot stand or live in the light! DEAD ZONE denizens truly need your and my human life vitality to sustain their own dark lives and to maintain their power and control over us. Without the free gift of our power, they have none!

Radio stations are also carefully monitored and controlled by these same dark human and inhuman entities. If a talk show host dares to invite a guest, no matter how popular, who reveals too many genuine truths to the listening public, they are in dire danger of being fired on the spot. On both radio and television, worldwide, regional and local news is rigorously edited. The news is slanted to give you whatever impression the producer aims for. My advice is to listen and to "read between the lines" and to observe keenly what is not said! Then chances are that you have the news. Only a very gullible and ignorant or sleeping fool believes all, or most, of what they see, read, or hear on television, radio or in major newspapers!

If you will practice duly cultured spiritual discernment, you will soon see where they are leading you: mainly into a "learned state of helplessness" designed and enforced by a growing One World Government. What do you think One World Order really means?

A One World Order (straight out of the DEAD ZONE) means total loss of all guaranteed U.S. constitutional rights and freedoms! Under those conditions the DEAD ZONE will have absolute world control! Everyone on earth will be filled with self-frustration, hopelessness, helplessness, guilt, regret, anger and growing explosive violence, which makes a sumptuous full-course meal out of everyone, including you!

Under monopoly control, the increase of desensitizing human crime and violence, pornographic sex, and bloody mayhem in public movies has escalated to immense proportions. More and more graphic violence and bloody mayhem are pointedly written into the new movie scripts. All this violent drama is acted out very realistically, filmed and soon projected on large movie screens worldwide, or in over a billion homes internationally. The net result is that millions upon millions of viewing young adults and small children become more and more desensitized. Can't you just see the DEAD ZONE denizens clapping wildly on the sidelines? I can!

After watching enough of these highly suggestive murder scenes, killing of someone you do not like---or just for fun--- becomes a "normal" human act! It is natural for children to emulate adults! The slick-minded demigods who wield their almost absolute control over our human affairs on earth know this. Their instruction and thus aim, is to reduce character of any visible sign of self-reliance! The dumbing of America has been consciously underway for over three generations now, and the program has succeeded almost beyond expectations! Why? Because it is impossible to effectively control a self-worthy human individual with a truly divine character! Conversely, in India, led by Sai Baba, the masses for over three generations have been transformed into conscious loving gods, leading it into the coming GOLDEN AGE before all other nations...

The crafty overlords of the DEAD ZONE brought the invention of radio and television on earth and into the daily consciousness of humanity, not to uplift it, but as a powerful tool to debase it! The aim has been to bring forth every vestige possible of discontent, guilt, and stress into our hearts and souls. Every time you consciously pay your hard-earned money to see a violent or often disgustingly degrading movie, you are serving yourself up at the same time as a juice meal for the DEAD ZONE overlords.

Raucous music has also come straight from the DEAD ZONE. Some of my readers here already know the worlds of difference between soothing, uplifting music of the great masters like Wagner, Strauss or Beethoven and the violent, body-wrenching contortions, howls, jolts, and kicks of hard metal rock music. The first takes you serenely and sublimely out of the DEAD ZONE. The second pulls you directly into the turbulence of the DEAD ZONE. Rock music was another inventive tool channeled into the earth plane to evoke frenzied, uncontrollable and highly explosive feelings in a listener. It is especially effective in a young or juvenile body and mind. In due course, it leads the listener into explosive and socially self-defeating lifestyles. If you listen to it, leads to the slow disintegration of your mind and your very precious body, a hearty meal for you keeper. I personally will not allow some invisible and leering vampire to chew away at mine...

Harmful drugs, "legal" and illegal, came from the DEAD ZONE centuries ago, an invention that has paid them off in huge dividends. Most of the old royal families made and kept huge fortunes over the centuries from the public sale of drugs. So what has changed?

Drugs have quickly helped make the USA the most crime-ridden country upon earth. I suggest you read some of the "underground" or self-published books about the modern worldwide growing drug trade. It will make you realize why so many young school children in California and some other states are on Ritalin. Drugs are providing our one-world controllers with more money and power than they can spend or use!

Small children are now being lured, more and more, into trying and thus getting hooked on hard drugs. The very little ones do not have any cartoon characters or children's story characters that parents would like to see: characters with character, truthful, respectful and beautiful beings. Instead ghouls, monsters, and despicable and very violent and demonic cartoons are being fed into their minds or read about in their picture books. This is why I am introducing my own little movie and children's story character, TWINKLE TOP, to the children of the world. TWINKLE TOP is a model child that every parent would like a son or daughter to imitate, He has a bright star above his head that changes according to his moods. If he is happy, his star is golden bright. When he is sad his star turns blue, and when he is angry his star turns flaming red.

TWINKLE TOP comes from the planet of Plunkett which is located near the brightest pink star in the heavens. The other amazing quality TWINKLE TOP has is his empathy. He identifies so strongly with whomever he is talk to or walking with that his skin becomes the same color skin as the person he is engaged with. He has a little round red spaceship and loves to travel and visit other planets, especially Earth. Otherwise, he looks and acts very much like any other human child, except that he knows and honors the divine god in everyone he meets. He was taught from childhood to see God in his mother, to see God in his father, to see God in his teacher, and to see God in his guest. I am sure you must agree that the world of human literature and children's entertainment on earth today needs a TWINKLE TOP kind of character desperately! My aim is to have several adventure story books and a Christmas television special movie titled, "TWINKLE TOP HELPS SANTA, shown on television every year. So be it! Watch for it!

Meanwhile, the obvious solution toward the creation of more stress and clutter in your life is to stop supporting television, radio, newspapers, magazines, books, art and all kinds of pseudo "art" that is feeding the DEAD ZONE your vital energy! Instead, find and support all of the genuinely spiritual and "underground" type of smaller, independent and honest television stations, radio stations, newspapers and books that increase your knowledge and enlightenment. Who needs or wants to be in the deadly "clutch" of DEAD ZONE draculas most of their daily lives? Not me, do you?

NATURAL VERSUS MANMADE DISASTERS

Natural disasters fall under a wide range of classifications and often predictable occurrences, like earthquakes, exploding volcanoes, tidal waves, rogue asteroids, and drastic weather changes that bring floods, freezing weather, or any excessive and prolonged periods of cold, heat, or drought.

These also tend to generate a wide range of negative, sorrowful and guilty emotions. Needed crops may be destroyed; homes or businesses may be lost; family, loved ones or friends are killed or injured in accidents caused by hurricanes, tornadoes, or other such powerful natural forces of nature. These are cyclic natural human disasters to which denizens of the DEAD ZONE are happily privy to sudden huge meals.

All of these aforementioned sad human disasters spring from the ongoing subtle or suddenly violent work of nature. Weather patterns are always connected and created by human thoughts and emotions. The accidents of nature are genuine "accidents." They are not purposefully premeditated or intentionally self-generated. Thus, they form a major part of the natural disaster gestalt on earth.

Besides all of those already mentioned natural disasters, we have train, bus, car, ship and aircraft wrecks, oil spills, fires, drownings, atomic radiation fallout kill, plagues (like beriberi, almost worldwide now), personal mental and body illnesses, personal body accidents, rapes, incest, suicide, murder, genocide and hosts more of human ills and misfortunes. All of these common calamities create daily snacks and huge meals or banquets for our DEAD ZONE keepers! Other than being more cautious, there is not much more we can do to prevent these natural kind of accidents or daily calamities, though it would be wise to exercise every ounce of foresight and prevention as far ahead of time as possible. For example, always keep at least one car length for every ten miles per hour speed you are driving between the vehicle you are driving and the next immediate car in front of you. If someone swerves in front of you abruptly, simply drop back to the safe distance from the car ahead of you again. Start early, drive slowly, and arrive safely!

In the past, humanity only had to contend with nature. Now something more ominous threatens our daily welfare on earth. Man now knows how to change the weather!

There was a time, not long ago, when all earthquakes, hurricanes, tornadoes, typhoons, excessive cold and snow, excessive rain and floods, excessive heat and drought, etc. came directly from huge natural electrical and magnetic wind and wave movements or tidal movements influenced by the moon---but not today!

The DEAD ZONE inventors have come up with a "lulu" this time! Today, with well-hidden-from-the-public (right under our eyes daily) huge weather control towers controlled or operated by an armada of elite secret earth scientists, any kind of good or bad weather can be created almost anywhere on our planetary globe, with pinpoint precision! This traitorous band of "hired hands" (dupes of the inhuman leeches on earth), guided by DEAD ZONE overlords, have now turned their full-scale scientific knowledge and technical wizardry to work against humanity! These behind the scenes scientists have taken the profound pool of accurate scientific knowledge presented so freely to the world by Walter Russell and Nikolas Tesla on how to build inexpensive, almost cost-free "FREE ENERGY MACHINES" in the mid-thirties of the twentieth century (which they quickly negated and hid) and are now using that knowledge to create whatever weather conditions they want, anywhere on earth, at any time (unknown, of course, to the general public).

Genuine free energy generators were known and usable cheaply over sixty years ago. The One World Corporation "beast" put a quick stop to that immediately.

The published fact that "perpetual motion" is the most basic and easily duplicative principle in nature has been another one of those many DEAD ZONE best-kept secrets on earth! The incredible Leonardo da Vinci of the twentieth century, Walter Russell, understood and spoke freely about harnessing perpetual motion. Nikolas Tesla actually built free energy towers and demonstrated that free energy could be directed to any spot on the globe. The DEAD ZONE dupes on earth used all their power and influence to make sure that neither one of these two outstanding scientists "got their due." Thus, both their names are almost lost in history.

Any mention, thought or claim for a "perpetual motion" gadget or machine is immediately discounted by Patent Office dupes who have duly been "boon-doggled" by orthodox or conventional schools of thought. Who do you think organizes and controls most schools of human thought---the DEAD ZONE! Conventional honest scientists are not privy to perpetual motion information. Inventors, scientists, or gadget makers that unwittingly come up with pollution-free designs of gadgets or machines that can tie in and make use of natural free energy motion of the universe are backed off quickly, bought out and silenced, or killed on the spot (usually feigned as a suicide or a natural accident).

The scope and range of horrendous new weapons now made (for use in population control or movement---aimed for the year 2000) would boggle and reel your mind! These run from highway cameras, chips in your auto, laser and particle beam weapons that make nuclear bombs obsolete to EL, electric low frequency wave patterns that disrupt the human minds impacted by them (blocking ability to think coherently), to mind control devices, to radio-controlled personal identity chips (small enough to pass through a vaccination needle), to laser tattoo bar bands on currency and on your arm or forehead, coinciding with the debit system (number of the beast), to total and almost absolute worldwide weather control!

How is it done? By utilizing the now installed "Woodpecker System" that encircles earth. There are eight major, as well as two powerful, international "Tesla" towers and countless national towers! These towers are not advertised as such! They appear harmless and are usually mistaken for new radio, television, or radar towers. They are spaced as a rule from seventy-five to two hundred miles apart, depending entirely on topography and population conditions or restrictions. These towers are linked together to form a planetary sphere electromagnetic grid system. Major Ralph Beardon, a retired officer in the U.S. military, is the one who has given them the unique name, "Woodpecker System." The controlling scientists, on command, can create, aim and send a huge storm of any kind to any designated target on earth. This same system can be modified to disrupt specific target cities or whole nations of people simultaneously with a bombardment of ultra-low (or high) frequency waves. The low waves create subtle but powerful currents of mental and physical imbalance and physical fatigue in the targeted individual or groups. You know already what the high frequency waves in your microwave can do! So suddenly, you have an individual or a whole city or a whole nation of people, all feeling tremendously irritable or "out of sorts" and not knowing why. The DEAD ZONE thrives on human irritation.

One of the diabolical weapons already made and tested by these elite scientists (secretly, of course) silently kills everyone hit by it on the spot, leaving buildings and structures in the vicinity intact for capture and use of the captors. This diabolical weapon can destroy every living human and every living thing within any enemy city within minutes!

Scores of deliberately cultured parasites and deadly viruses are intentionally created and released into the atmosphere and selected water supply systems by these dastardly-owned scientists (and highly paid management) dupes. Are they targeting your city today? The word has "gotten out" that the One World Order group's plan for the year 2000 is to reduce our human population by any means needed from seven billion to approximately one-half billion living human inhabitants by that time! This is a dreadful and drastic sudden population decrease and is still the "official" target. Therefore, an obvious wholesale slaughter of humankind on earth is in their present agenda. What an immense harvest of human energy for the DEAD ZONE hierarchy! One strong earth arm of the DEAD ZONE, the Committee of 300, piously presided over and chair personned by a "high Society" wealthy old lady of England, is determined to have their United Nations military-enforced One World Order have full control over all nations and peoples of earth by the year 2000 (as revealed by former British intelligence agent in his revelatory book, Committee of 300, listed as a reference in the back of this volume).

This means you can count your bottom dollar to bet (and win) that many imminent awful earthquakes, storms and weather patterns are now already scheduled and working to provide luscious and bountiful meals to the DEAD ZONE vampires worldwide!

After long and uneventful lulls in economic competition, even some beneficent technology or inventions are allowed conception and development on earth. These also soon disrupt and create more earth unrest, more greed, more guilt. So another whole generation of human "cows" are milked in new ways and in new earth areas.

Virtual reality and cyberspace technology is the next super industry scheduled to change earth. When development matures, this industry will exceed income of all past movies and entertainment developed and produced in the past. A wise investor would bet his money on it!

During these severely trying times, as earth gets ready to be birthed into a star, it is difficult to tell whether any occurring disaster on earth is natural or "man made." Both dastardly "inner circle groups" in the DEAD ZONE and on earth know this. They are depending on the present fact of their invisible manipulations to keep each one of us as far off balance as possible! There has been a deliberate increase of personal crisis incidents to help keep us from noticing what is really going on around us---out there. So, wake up! You have your life at stake! In fact, you are the "steak dinner" served up to the DEAD ZONE keepers by our misused earth science.

Knowing now what you know, what can you do about it? Knowledge always brings new self-responsibility. This is one covert reason why many people shun any significant new knowledge. Innately they know they are going to have to make changes in their lifestyle, so they conveniently choose NOT TO KNOW!

Your task with any new knowledge that enlightens, frees and uplifts other human beings is to gift it to them. Start with your own immediate family circle. Tell them about the DEAD ZONE, and how they can be free of any influence coming from it to them. Let all of your loved ones know how and why their emotional buttons are being pushed, and by whom! Let them know the subtle but real, often hidden, reason for sudden, local, national or worldwide changes.

You can also learn to leave the DEAD ZONE keepers out of your own personal loop. Practice cooperation instead of competition! See god in everyone! Give back equally what you receive! See the divine god-self in all others---at all times---while loving your own god-self into human body and spirit existence! This will help to collapse the DEAD ZONE, which will also help to usher in the birth of our coming Earth Star! Let's plan to enjoy it together...

Chapter 26

ANCIENT GODS AND ASCENDED MASTERS

The first question to address is: is there an ancient "God" like Jehovah? Is there really such a real deity? The answer is yes and no.

Jehovah is real in the sense that all of the disowned bits and pieces of your ancient self and my ancient self and all other contributing ancient selves are fused together into a living gestalt known by the Hebrews as Jehovah. He or "it" is really a huge collection of billions and billions of parts and particles of human consciousness, put together now into one massive, very knowledgeable, very childish, and very hateful, angry (and sometimes loving), very human-like massive ego!

That pseudo DEAD ZONE "God" (Jehovah) only exists as a human made creation, living in the DEAD ZONE. Jehovah was not birthed directly from THE SOURCE of this universe like God. This very alive, huge, humanly-created thought form was created in our universe over a very long period of time, by us. This pseudo "God" or Jehovah is literally composed or made up of our "throw away" or give away portions of our human selves through the ages.

How do you think Jehovah became such an angry "God"? God is love, and no anger exists in Him. Anger is a human trait only! The answer is that you and I (and countless other human gods before us) gave away all of our anger, our jealousies, our fears, and other conditional human frailties to him! This "God" was created solely from our own false ego self-image.

There have been from inception of the DEAD ZONE "Fallen angels" many different hierarchical levels of ancient pseudo "Gods." Jehovah is a relatively very new name given to the "big cheese" in the DEAD ZONE. Every major tribe or civilization has over the millions of years on earth helped to develop the aspects and attributes of whatever major pseudo "God" reigned at that time, including the names.

There is truly a GOD OF LOVE that Hebrews and all of us from the many different sects or "faiths" pray to. We know that God is real, and always willing to forgive and forget the "sins" of all of us who are genuinely penitent of our past karma, or present willful, wrong thoughts, feelings or actions. However, ignorant preachers or so-called teachers go right ahead mixing these two very different---totally different identities. The Old Testament DEAD ZONE Hebrew "God" was fierce, angry, jealous and unforgiving, and often very hateful. Contrast this to the real all-loving, merciful all-forgiving, and all-powerful God of Light, known and presented by the man Jesus, a god not to be feared but worth loving totally!

The ignorant and intentionally misguided clergy of the new cult formed around Jesus simply continued to bring forth the Old Hebrew concept of a very exacting, very conditional, and a very angry and demanding pseudo "God." These clergy leaders calculated it was too hard to control or coerce a church member of their gestalt who was not fearful of the anger and mighty power of a punitive "God." So they continued mixing God and pseudo human "God" into one distorted teaching. Jesus never taught that! He taught us we were gods!

THE SOURCE gave true birth to God Itself, Who is a God of Love, Who emits unconditional, non-judgmental love, light, joy, and knowledge! Anger cannot and does not exist in GOD SOURCE. Anger only arises and is known in our guilt-laden, self hating, dark, human spectrum of existence.

Darkness is not of GOD or SOURCE. The single idea that God is ever angry is totally false. It was and is an outright lie---directly from the DEAD ZONE hierarchy---to trap you and to control you through fear!

Think this through...The silly notion of an angry universal GOD SOURCE is based on very shallow human assumption that God could be so insecure as to demand conditional love from us. God has never needed or wanted anyone to kneel, bow, and scrape before Him. Think! A decree or command that we must act, think, or feel a certain way on earth or we will be horribly punished, is obviously not a decree from a loving, parental universal source.

GOD SOURCE, or even our own human parents, should never be feared!

The throngs of ignorant and blind followers of the ancient false, angry "God" like Jehovah wrongly assumed that loving meant caring for, or even more to the point, being taken care of! (Does that ring any bells?)

Therefore, Jehovah, or whomever dressed in saintly garb in the DEAD ZONE after/death, cared for them (because he emptied or discharged them of their heavy past human burdens of guilt, pain, anger, and sorrow). Thus, they assumed "He" was doing a loving act...

In reality, Jehovah was and still is only an ignorant but very crafty biological human spirit like us, who discovered very early in the DEAD ZONE that he could prolong and increase his life, his knowledge, his power, and his presence, by "skimming off" the electrical wet discharges of the newly deceased, or even from the unsuspecting human beings still embodied on 3-D earth. He is, therefore, the real DEVIL in crafty disguise as "God." Jehovah, or the Devil, is merely the colossal sum total of unwanted human angers, conditional love, old memories, large and small bits and pieces of the collective consciousness of billions upon billions of past dead or present living physical human gods like you and me.

Whether in or out of your physical human body. when you discharge your personal anger into the eagerly awaiting aura of Jehovah or the Devil, it adds more increments to the already massive personal bank of anger already stockpiled in him. All of your unwanted memories have supplied Jehovah and his lesser hierarchical devils or demons with seeming all-knowledge, all-power, and all-presence. However, most of that is pure defensive human ego! Since the long awaited earthly avatar has now incarnated in HIS human body form, that huge ego of Jehovah is about to be greatly deflated.

Jehovah (alias, the Devil) is actually stuck or stagnated in time! He will soon have to surrender all of his great power and "lower" himself into physically reincarnating back into the human birth/death/rebirth cycle, just like all the other common human beings like you and me. Like us, he needs to learn how to love his god-self into human existence. He will go through---and beyond--- in due time, just like you, I and all other human god spirits...So be it!

Ascended Masters

All Ascended Masters, like Buddha, Jesus, Mohammed, Allah, and other historically known Ascended Masters are waiting patiently for us somewhere now beyond the DEAD ZONE! There have been far more unknown Ascended Masters, unrecorded historically (some of them women), that have duly ascended from earth than known ones. These grand human "graduates" now rest at very high frequency levels or plateaus above the DEAD ZONE. However, none of them is stuck there, as Jehovah and his demonic aides are in the DEAD ZONE. The spiritual life existence of Ascended Masters is self-sustained, as each is fully in touch with the "atma" or god within. However, though they do not draw from it, the love and ardent devotion given to them by devotees or disciples still incarnate upon earth, or those that followed and carried on His or Her sacred teachings and memories, are known and felt acutely by them!

All real Ascended Masters have been transformed into pure white light. They therefore do not need to reincarnate or to repeat and repeat what they have already so greatly mastered. They are simply parked on the "sidelines" of our theater-in-the-round upon earth, all waiting expectantly for the imminent birth of our earth as a star! They know at a certain "critical mass" point a huge class of billions of human spirits will ascend (with them) simultaneously into an entirely self-created new universe!

No a single human graduate is permitted to go beyond the DEAD ZONE into this virgin universe until the new earth birth occurs! At that precise moment the old prophecy "The first will be the last, and the last will be the first" will be fulfilled. In any event, the mass ascension of human spirit graduates will be simultaneous. At that same exact moment TIME WILL CEASE---the DEAD ZONE will collapse and vanish---while all of those light-entity beings who have succeeded in loving our divine human spirits into existence will go beyond it into CREATION

AND GLORY beyond our present human comprehension...So be it!

THE WHITE BROTHERHOOD are earth graduates (from all races) who chose to remain with us here on earth until MASS GRADUATION DAY. They do what they can to inspire all of us to love our god-selves into human existence...

Chapter 27

BEYOND THE DEAD ZONE

At this point, as just revealed, the Ascended Masters cannot even go beyond the DEAD ZONE...and back into a greater aspect of THE SOURCE within THE SOURCE. The DEAD ZONE persists as our incubation chamber and will easily contain every single one of us who "leaves the body" on earth at that incredible coming "critical mass" point, when earth is born as a star and mass human ascension occurs.

Meanwhile, the urge to "go beyond the DEAD ZONE" to achieve human liberation has propelled us forward, as an everlasting goal since the first light-entity god-being dared to take up physical habitation within a gross human body on earth. After/death all of us got firmly stuck in between that point of absolute purity we had left as god-light beings in THE SOURCE and descended into this low human body wavelength upon earth! Every single one of us intrepid light-being god-selves (by the many billions) who eventually "made the plunge" or the "fall" into "solid" human mass who died had to be parked somewhere, at some level of the DEAD ZONE, where we waited patiently to be re-birthing into human body form again. We realized that each new golden opportunity of rebirth enabled us to learn how to finally love our god-self into human spirit existence.

Through all of these long millions of years of human form existence on earth, our one single-pointed purpose has been self-liberation! To do so, each of us is impelled to refine or uplift our own unique human body form (or incarnated pulsation rate) to a much higher wavelength frequency. We know at some critical point that higher rate of vibration will transmute, transfigure and transform us enough to go beyond the DEAD ZONE, into greater GOD SOURCE.

This has truly been a long and tedious and quite struggling journey for most of us. A few thoughtless, fearful light entities who found themselves in the DEAD ZONE after/death---during its early formation---learned how to change the game, how to prolong their life and vitality in the DEAD ZONE at the expense of others residing there with them. In time, they grew more powerful and more knowledgeable and devised ways to feed from the wet electricity or negative emotions or bio-electric discharges of god-light beings in human bodies on earth, as well. It did not matter if the human spirit was incarnate or bodiless, he or she was a "choice meal" almost at will.

When the memory "stripping" process was perfected, it brought on the very serious challenge (to those of us stripped) to preserve some measure of self-memory or self-identity. We gave away willingly our sorrows, regrets and hurtful memories, so the cycle of repeated human incarnation upon incarnation became a genuine necessity for each one of us to keep growing and evolving a little more and more. Only strongly impacted or deeply embedded human experiences are recorded within our sub-atomic mass. These core experiences could not be stripped away from us. Thus, we always managed to keep a few personal memories or pearls of wisdom which could be evoked by us when needed. So we do manage to grow a little, through each successive birth/life/death/rebirth cycle.

Meanwhile, the same deep message keeps crying out from the core of our human being during every conscious birth cycle..."I want to go home--to GOD SOURCE--"I want to return to my holiness--whole-I-ness--in the SOURCE! It is an eternally resounding self-message with us. "Go home, E.T."

We often fail miserably to retain the resolve we made in our last DEAD ZONE after/life to come back into a human body and to love or god-self into human spirit existence. That former strong resolution in the DEAD ZONE to get back into a suitable human body as fast as we can and to love our god-selves is lost soon after human incarnation. Instead, we go through the whole painful, gruesome memory stripping process after/death---again and again! At birth, we do not have a strong enough thread of continuity of consciousness to go beyond the last stripping. Sadly, it is only when we are once more disembodied in the DEAD ZONE that we "remember," with deep regret, that we had failed to remember to love each precious life moment in human body and spirit form---next time...and we forgot!

This "remembering" or "self-assessment," while without a physical human body and the continual forgetting of our powerful self-resolution (when back in the body), has been a long, long vicious, unending cycle of anguish after anguish.

Only a few illumined sages and yogi masters who had safely awakened their kundalini, have thus transmuted, transformed and transcended their human body selves in one sudden exhilarating lifetime! When you are sensually and sexually alive and in strong self-control of every single throbbing cell of your body, you are automatically loving your human god-self into existence, every thrilling moment of every thrilling day. The awakened and wise human soul will use every intelligent source; and every earthly or divine means possible to get free of the death/rebirth/death "cage" of cycles.

Who would want to go in and out of the DEAD ZONE a moment longer than necessary? Although we collectively created this huge in-between world as a safe and needed haven, it now harbors very dark and demonic forces.

Our added knowledge of DEAD ZONE keepers fortifies our strong inner determination to go beyond it. At the same time, our great resolve is helping to precipitate the birth of earth star. Aware of it or not, you are on the verge of moving out of your aged human cocoon and turning into a free-flying butterfly! A host of us are about to move out in unison---beyond the DEAD ZONE---and back to even greater depths of our GOD SOURCE.

BEYOND THE SOURCE

Perhaps you are now beginning to know or intuit there always were, are and will be endless SOURCES within SOURCES. There are also ENDLESS SOURCES outside of SOURCES. There are SOURCES in front of SOURCES, and there are endless SOURCES in back of SOURCES. There are endless SOURCES to the left of SOURCES, and endless SOURCES to the right of SOURCES. There are endless SOURCES in all six known directions of 3-D space, as well as endless SOURCES in endless directions of unknown space! In all directions that thought can travel, your own humanly freed god-self will encounter endless universes upon universes, birthed and nurtured by endless upon endless SOURCES.

You and I, and all of our beloved brother and sister human god-light entities were birthed from the ONE GREAT DREAM, the ONE GOD birthed within our own specific universal SOURCE. This ONE GOD is very real and controls all CREATION within this vast universe our garden-green planet Earth resides in. Simultaneously (similar to the big bang theory in earth science), you and I and all myriads of gods or light-entity beings were birthed collectively as ONE GOD---from the GREAT VOID, from Nothing, or No Thing.

We individually (thus uniquely) emerged from out of an exact zero universe position to eventually become Some Thing or Something! All Somethings start out their universal birth as light particums or minute rays of faint glimmering light! Over the eons, through constant impact with each other and a gradual development of sensitivity and intelligence, we gradually grew into mighty, very powerful and tremendously creative, fully matured gods, or light-entity selves...

This universal creation was a grand experiment, focused on this tiny planet Earth. It was constructed or "engineered" so that all of us human spirit gods who graduated were not only allowed to go back home to our ONE GOD SOURCE, but we could ourselves become miniature, three-in-one SOURCE/CREATOR/SELF beings (first of a kind, ever) at which point, each earth god graduate could go (out, in or sideways) beyond our own FATHER/MOTHER GOD SOURCE into absolute infinity, at will.

This kind of an experiment (to merge a SOURCE, a CREATOR, and a SELF) had never been tried before in all of the endless eternities of creation! Normally, when a god-light being returns to his or her SOURCE it respirates or goes to sleep within it, returning to its space as part of the ONE GREAT DREAMER.

In the long eons past of endless CREATION, of the three only known major universal entity classifications of SOURCE, CREATOR and SELF, only a SELF has ever learned how to go back into its SOURCE, renew, or recharge Itself and come back out of it without invariably going to sleep, thus never to be heard from again by external observing god-light entities. Of these three major universal entity classifications, of which there are a countless number, Selves are relatively few!

This is also the first particle/wave (or dual electric) universe dreamed into existence by a GOD SOURCE. All countless past universes ever created were composed of waves (but no particles). This dual electric polarity universe with earth as a focal particle or point, was (and is) an exciting experiment for all of the god-light entities observing it. This universe, concentrating upon planet Earth, was carefully constructed to see if it would be possible to create all three major universal entity classifications into one "individuated" human spirit unit--at earth graduation!

Though done at great risk to our own specific universal SOURCE involved, it was proven a great success when the first Ascended Master in our human family graduated into ascension. Recycling or human reincarnation process assured repetition of schooling experiences. If we failed, we could try and try over and over again, until we finally succeeded. Thus, on graduation, we will each be a three-in-on SOURCE/CREATOR/SELF. We can then roam through all CREATION at will, enter any SOURCE anywhere, anytime, any way without respirating or falling asleep, or returning to the No Thing condition again! So be it!

In essence, my beloved friends, we will not only have succeeded in reaching the highest plateau of absolute unification again in the ONE GOD SOURCE (of this universe), we will actually be able when we have done all and learned all within the ONE GOD on earth now to go beyond THE SOURCE!

Chapter 29

DESTRUCTION OF THE DEAD ZONE

The DEAD ZONE is now on the verge of complete collapse! This is because all living "forms" on or connected to earth directly will go through the new spiritual birth process---as earth turns into a star! You and I are now already a grand part of this glorious birth. Your possession and wise living use of this knowledge presented here to you assures you your part in this birth.

The rapidly approaching earth star conversion and the entire collapse of the DEAD ZONE are inextricably tied together. However, we will separate the two events as much as possible for greater clarity. We want as clear and as broad an overview as possible of each contributing event. We will begin with the DEAD ZONE, which is shrinking more and more each day, as more and more of us now enlightened human spirits take back more and more of our own personal god-self power away from it!

Do the DEAD ZONE overlords like Jehovah and his key inner band of hierarchical followers know of this imminent birth of earth star? Emphatically, yes! They are already making all-out efforts to "boycott" this earth birth in every conniving way.

No living entity in the whole wide universe really wants to go back all the way to no thing again! There are some demonic forces or essences now living in the DEAD ZONE, who really have no life of their own except the conscious life you and I and other gods have given to them. They are essentially "living thought forms" and are often very intelligent and powerful, but they are made up of or created from self-identity fragments we all have disowned or discharged from us. In other words, these entities do not have a "soul of their own"! They were never birthed directly from the ONE GOD SOURCE, like the rest of us on earth. We collective human creators created them through our fears, our hatreds, our angers, our greed or frustrations, and our lack of self-security...

Some of these humanly created demons that we have given form and substance to in the DEAD ZONE have already achieved high positions of power and authority---over these long ages. They are simply not going to stand idly by and give up that vast authority and mighty self-power over so many human spirits so easily. Their egos are too huge for that! Some are "top dogs" directly under Jehovah's command. They are just as strongly determined as Jehovah to stop the birth of earth star---at all costs!

What will occur between now and immediately prior to our sudden new earth birth will be the gradual (or sudden) "equalization" of any and all genuine human gods in the DEAD ZONE. Some of these gods have been living in the DEAD ZONE and growing massive egos for over one million years. All of their mighty power, high authority and false identity will now in turn (what goes around come around) be "stripped" away from every god in the DEAD ZONE who has been playing "God" or a merciless overlord over others through these long years. Each single one of them will, therefore, move back to "square one." They will each be equal exactly to what and who they really were in size, self-power and self-identity, as when they first entered and became aberrant in the DEAD ZONE...

That thought terrifies them all, especially Jehovah! Over the long, long ages many of them worked their way up from the bottom or the middle of the "heap" (of you know what) to rank under Jehovah himself as right-hand generals. Now with those massive egos they cannot conceive of dropping back "down" to being equal with all of the "commoners" like us.

At least those parasitic gods still incubating in the DEAD ZONE are not faced with the unthinkable prospect of being reduced back down to no thing, like the demons and monsters we self-created in the DEAD ZONE! All of these pseudo identities we created in the DEAD ZONE are faced with the real and immediate issue of being reduced from "something" back to "nothing"---no thing, again!

Though some of the larger entities or gestalts in the DEAD ZONE have also assembled some measure of conditional love, in their individuated self-identities, most of them including their boss Jehovah have fierce or very nasty dispositions. They are not someone, or something, you would want to confront and spar with in a dark alley! Most, though cunning, have large measures of childish anger and hate---accentuated by immense mental power. Guess where that came from!

Have no fear. You are not personally going to war or fight with any of these dark and much "bigger" than yourself ghouls in the DEAD ZONE! These "bad guys" will be equalized by even bigger and more powerful "good guys." These are the direct representatives of the young CREATIVE GOD responsible for this astounding earth human experiment! Your only personal real "job" from this day forth, until the whole DEAD ZONE collapses, is to help speed up this collapse by personally taking back your own unique human god spirit power! You can restore your own human god-self integrity, piece by piece, feeling by feeling, as you cease to feed the DEAD ZONE.

You can be well assured that the "big boys" in the DEAD ZONE have held many emergency conferences. They keep thinking up and implementing their best possible ways to boycott this earth star birth! They have seriously considered the possibility of "cutting off" and trying to live without us! They are weighing the potential of their shrewd ability to survive, in their own right, without our further moment-to-moment input of negative charges (transformed into wet electricity, which sustains their lives). They are frantically trying to come up with a workable answer to their serious dilemma. However, they just do not have quite enough knowledge of how to completely sever themselves from us on earth successfully, nor will they have enough time to be able to figure it out!

The reason for their problem is simple. Without exception, every single life form connected to and dependent on our planet Earth will go through this already scheduled earth star birth. The inhabitants of the DEAD ZONE are no exception.

This is explained in detail in my book, The Birth of Earth as a Star, but there will literally be a condensation (or precipitation) of two new and "physical" earths. Both of these will arise from the splitting apart of the nucleus of this ancient earth we are living on at this moment.

Of the two, the higher or positive polarity earth will at "critical mass" be propelled with great speed and force entirely out of our present universe. It will again literally create a brand new, parallel universe space---of its own! The other greatly changed newborn earth, the lower or negative polarity sphere, will instantly replace our then totally disintegrated old earth---this one, the one we have been living on over and over again for about ten million human years.

The entire human earth population will also simultaneously "split" in one brief instant. Those of us polarized in the higher or faster frequency wavelength will suddenly "pop off" this old earth. We will disappear as a group from the old (but newly replaced) earth---as startled observers left behind will see!

Those of us popping off earth will have successfully achieved the mass ascension that we initially came here to finally experience! We will have moved on to a totally pure and incredibly grand new lifestyle, completely devoid of the struggle, sorrow, pain and guilt felt on the old earth. Our new home in the heavens will also be a sudden shining new star above and outside of this universe!

Prophecy

Before this earth star birth, a tremendous barrage of major earth changes will take place! High winds of incredible speeds will whistle, circle and move above and through the atmospheres of our planet, across lands and seas! Unexpected natural storms (as well as devastating man made ones) will suddenly spring up to cause massive loss of human life and property. There will be a huge increase of human death and, at the same time, an almost complete halt of new human births.

The electromagnetic fields surrounding earth will change drastically. This change will produce such a huge disruption that the old, familiar magnetic and electric principles will utterly fail to work! Imagine an earth without usable electricity! Cars, buses, trains, trucks, ships, airplanes---all electrically-powered machines and gadgets, including homes and industries---will cease to work. Then, very gradually, new energy generation fields and forms will be found and substituted.

Also prior to earth birth, as the DEAD ZONE compresses more and more and begins collapsing, terrified entities there will be trying desperately to physically materialize themselves into human bodies on 3-D earth. They will be on the frantic lookout for negatively charged and partially or wide-open "channels" and will hastily step into the body of the channel. Those present individuals by the many thousands, who are channeling pseudo masters (not the real ones) naming themselves Christ, Buddha, Germaine, and a host of other such claimed or self-identified "holy" spirits or "masters" from the DEAD ZONE, could and may literally provide an open channel for residence directly in their human body when the heat gets "too hot in the kitchen" in the DEAD ZONE. As god creators, we also have the power already to particulate wavelength entities. Thus to keep from being equalized in the DEAD ZONE is to try to compel you and a number of others to focus upon the thought form of how they would appear to look in human form. Because of natural creative principles, if there is enough charge in the thought form, a mighty denizen in the DEAD ZONE could actually physically particulate or materialize it, and would thus have a genuine human body on earth in which to carry on with its lifestyle of greed, lust and power at any cost to us! This would then add one more soul-less, power-hungry and merciless human entity in physical form on earth, and who needs it?

Actually, there are worldwide satanic groups who do practice these kinds of evil materialization "black magic" rituals, who may evoke enough mental power to achieve it. If so, they are now in great peril, since their "Frankenstein" monster would not hesitate a moment to turn on its gullible and foolish human creators!

In this coming "new age" on earth, spiritual upliftment will be so complete that a DEAD ZONE or in-between human incarnation state will not be needed, thus no more aberrant denizens to milk off our human energy.

There will never be what we know as human death for those of us who pop off on the higher earth star. On the lower earth star, a mirror situation will occur in a lesser degree. For at least a period of 1,000 years, human physical death will be impossible! No matter how or what is tried to kill off another human being on earth, or to commit suicide, it will not work. Death will simply not be possible!

This cessation of death---and no DEAD ZONE to go to---will be quite disconcerting to the "failed" remaining human earth inhabitants. However, a no-death (thus, no escape) situation soon prompts them to get their act together. Who wants to live in misery for a thousand years? And in due time, one by one, each will graduate and gravitate off and away from this earth (and this "old" universe) and will happily find and rejoin the rest of their own family of human gods (us) on and in the new higher earth star universe!

This is why great master teachers have often said for us not to worry about those left behind. Slower human learners will also be earth graduates in their own due time. They may then leave this old universal earth school and soar freely to the divine universal "earth star life" that the faster learners like us are already blissfully enjoying! Each precious light-entity human god spirit has been given the free choice to find their own learning pace and to travel their own learning paths, for all learning paths lead eventually to a human earth graduation. None is better than another. All of us have been created equally (and all of us are equal), however unique or odd to others. All of our countless self-chosen learning paths lead to home---to our ONE GOD SOURCE---and beyond!

The main task now set before each of us on earth is to start reclaiming our great god-self control power---break all circuits leading to parasitic DEAD ZONE gestalts. Recollect consciously all of the lost wisdom you have earned and given away, but no more! Convert all of your regrets into sparkling pearls!

As you do, the gravitational power of the DEAD ZONE keepers over you will quickly recede and vanish. Simultaneously, the countless bits and choice pieces of yourselves that you have given away over the long ages of births, deaths and human rebirths will gravitate back into their proper living orbit and circuits with you. My book, Mental Room of Mirrors---Self-Therapy Technique, will speed up this divine process measurably!

Those ancient lost bits and pieces of yourselves will be coming from Jehovah, as well as from myriads of past DEAD ZONE overlords and personal keepers, who themselves are slowly disintegrating at this very moment.

There must be, and will be, a final, quick, total collapse of the DEAD ZONE just moments prior to the dual earth star birth. At that point, each single human god on earth will be able to collect, reclaim and re-own all of the long-earned knowledge, wisdom and god-self power which all along was their own unique, well-earned "good fruit"! As you might have discerned already, this is the real LAST JUDGMENT referred to in Biblical prophecy.

Caution

A final word of caution to those human gods left behind on lower earth (who failed to love their human god-selves into existence)...There will be the strong, old human tendency to want to focus on the "bad" of the world, just like old times! The wise person will, however, divert all of his or her focus into the new earth star and learn as quickly as you can to love your human god-self into existence!

Another caution: the coming earth changes will be extremely severe. Many people at that time will want, demand or insist that you focus your attention with them on their fears. If you do, you will only feed the DEAD ZONE gestalt and overlords more of your much needed self-power for human survival.

In fact, if you start now to focus on the living fact that now is the most wonderful time to be on earth, and that God is in you and with you, you will be safe in the "eye" of a hurricane, or safe in a terrible earthquake, or safe in the middle of a burning city ablaze with fire everywhere. Nature takes care of her own!

Be thankfully assured that your own human god spirit knows exactly where and when you need to be at any given moment---of these assuredly upcoming severe and final earth changes. You literally always are where you are---in consciousness!

It's your choice! Aren't you glad?

Chapter 30

THE BIRTH OF EARTH AS A STAR

Our old tired earth, like a tired old human body cell of ours, is about to give up the old shell and give birth as a bright star...The old nucleus will split, and two new earths will form around it. The lower earth will gather around the mass or matter of the old etheric earth form blueprint. The high "anti-matter" earth will instantly vanish into a newly created virgin universe. The close correspondence to slow donkey speed rate change (like in human cells) ends here. Those of us traveling on this higher earth are about to witness and vitally experience (what we have been waiting an eternity for) a light speed change or quantum jump in the growth of our own body cells (consciously), along with the simultaneous light speed change and quantum jump of our higher planet Earth, too! All living forms then connected in circuitry to the ancient earth will be transformed and transported in the twinkling of an eye, to the appropriate one of the spiritually matching vibratory frequency rates of the two newly birthed earths.

The preparatory physical formation and alteration is already beginning to take place within earth and upon all of us living on it. My human body (and your human body) is forming two entirely different sets of vital organs and limbs, etc. Realizing it or not, you already have two different sets of appendages, two different heads, necks, arms, legs, and body torsos. This same incredible mutation is going on in the animal and insect kingdoms, as well as in the elemental and atomic (and sub-atomic) living kingdoms comprising this ancient earth.

When sudden critical mass point is reached, all myriads of these human, animal, insect, and living mass forms, including the entire ancient earth itself, will split and be forcibly thrust apart from each other! One of our two body sets will cohere and become a full-bloomed human god-light being body in the new universe; the other will cohere and leap forward in physical form along with the lower physical earth (still, yet in this same old universe). The higher earth will be jettisoned with greater than light speed force away from and totally out of, the previously "containing" wall or skin of this old universe.

This higher new earth will instantly form an entire virgin new universe around it, creating its own universal space and outer protective "shell" or skin in the process...

This means that you and your awed consciousness (if you are one of these light-entity beings on earth that has learned how to love its human god spirit into existence) will enjoy the ride into eternity! That ride will be the thrill of all thrills, followed by growing, ongoing, unfolding new thrill upon thrill---as you arrive and reside on higher earth in your new universe.

To the objective entity observers looking on (from within this present universe) when this planetary nucleus splits, that new gleaming "solid" earth left behind will have become an instant new shining star.

No matter if you ride on higher earth or lower earth, you will suddenly see old friends, loved ones, as well as a large segment of society suddenly "pop off" and disappear from your sight, completely and irrevocably! If you are riding the higher "earth spaceship" into the new universal space, you will suddenly see all of those who did not make it fall off from earth and out of your sight. Only the human graduates take that ride!

On the lower earth sphere, exactly 180 degrees away, you will see loved ones, good old friends, and a major portion of human society in general vanish into "thin air"! The growing UFO myth and other such newly formulated myths will be adopted to explain away this strange and unexplainable phenomenon to survivors on lower earth. Thus the human brain will be assured or reassured to live by new myths, and human life on the new lower earth star will go on, but now with massive new differences.

As stated, death will not be possible now for the DEAD ZONE has been totally collapsed, and all of the overlords within it, large and small, including Jehovah, have all been humanly equalized!

The human brain on lower earth will seemingly shut off for a brief period of time. This will allow for a tiny new appendage to grow in back of it that will be completely "rewired" through dream states. This will then allow a final full use of the entire brain mass, as now compared to the less than ten percent of our brains being utilized by us today on ancient earth.

The "light brain" and the "intellectual brain" will "fire up" into synchronized action. The new breed of lower earth citizen will soon change. He or she will soon begin to take up his or her full human self-responsibility. The old state of "learned helplessness" fostering today through government and generated directly from the DEAD ZONE, will disappear from earth too!

The countless flowing magna stream systems laced throughout the earth (like human blood or human lymph systems) will gradually clean out or totally purge all of the radioactivity now so prevalent in many locations on ancient earth. The God in earth knows full well how to reroute these fiery magna system streams when necessary to purge deceased planetary organs or parts.

Although in the past, Africa has had more magnetic shifting of "poles" in their area than anywhere else on ancient earth, the impending polar shift is presently aimed or geared to polarize somewhere in Russia! In any event, the two magnetic poles of earth will shift very drastically and dramatically just before this sudden new earth star birth!

At this same time, an entirely new pool of human consciousness has already been taking shape or form on earth. It is not a gestalt for gestalts deal with the past. There is no new word for it yet, but it is a giant pool of "living" energy (opposed to dead), and no one can gain access into this "living thought form" unless his or her vibratory pulsation rate is equal to the "loving your human god-self into existence" vibratory or pulsation rate! Prior to formation of this "living thought form pool" all other pools or collections of human thought formed gestalts and all gestalts on earth are tied into or wired into the DEAD ZONE. You had to move your mind into the past in order to access them!

This LIVING THOUGHT FORM POOL gives life to all who access it. The DEAD ZONE or ancient earth gestalts take life. The LIVING THOUGHT FORM POOL can only be accessed when you are living in the now moment.

Gestalts will still remain on the lower earth star until dissolved by rising human consciousness. However, this newly formed LIVING THOUGHT FORM POOL will move along with us on our grand ride of higher earth into its new universe. It will be our immediate SOURCE of life-giving, life-sustaining nourishment there for everyone. It will simply "be there" like a freely nurturing mother until each one of us gets reoriented to the sudden unfamiliar total new freedom, and our astounding and almighty abilities to have our thoughts become focused into instant realities!

Since no destructive or self-destructive thoughts or feelings can access this LIVING THOUGHT FORM POOL, then firmly anchored on that higher earth star in that new universal space, it will also act as a protective womb for all of us there. It will forever allow only loving, creative and uplifting thoughts to be held in mind. This is closely similar to our past human use of the DEAD ZONE on old earth to cradle us and act like a protective incubator of our human spirits after/death. The similarity ends here, for one is a womb (or tomb) for the dead, and the other is a womb for the living!

You have fortunately found knowledge here about life and death that you will not find anywhere in the conventional school of human thought or levels of human education. You are now aware that neither death nor life has ever really been known by you in depth before. And there is much more for you and I to learn and to know about the very great illusion of death, but your and my knowledge and awareness about our own life process and our unending human spiritual unfoldment will continue until graduation!

You are not the dark shadow cast dimly upon the earth scene created by some distant and unapproachable giant...You are the giant! Now through this knowledge, you can consciously claim this small holographic human shadow on earth as your own! Knowledge takes away all of your smallness. Knowledge actually always makes you bigger than life! Little minds live in small worlds. Big minds live in big worlds!

Our long, winding and often twisted journey together through the shadows of darkness on earth---and in the DEAD ZONE and beyond---into the ONE GOD SOURCE (and the birth of earth as a star) has not ended. It has just begun! My love, light and joy go with you...

THE BEGINNING

APPENDIX

I now duly suggest that you obtain all of my published books that are available to you. You may not be searching for a soulmate at this time, but Finding Your Soulmate, Your Soulmate---Is Calling, and The Soulmates, Chronicles all contain valuable information about the electric versus the magnetic universe, and how we are inadvertently attracted to someone or something. Mental Room of Mirrors---Self-Help Therapy is a natural adjunct to this volume you have just read on the DEAD ZONE. The self-therapy techniques are simple to do.

Besides my own many books, I highly recommend that you obtain and read every book written about Him or published based directly on the spoken and recorded word about Sai Baba, the presently incarnate avatar in India! My own soul thirsts for knowledge, and when I saw the now popular video of Sai Baba, My Life Is My Message, I read every English language book written that I could find about Him---or teachings by Him---some forty books within two months! In Austria, visiting a bookstore, I found over fifty books written in German about Sai Baba. When you read the first book about Him, you will understand why He is known and loved worldwide. At a recent presentation in India, over four million people stood in attendance to hear Him speak---by far the greatest number of people ever assembled to honor anyone, anywhere on earth in recorded history! When He assures you He will usher the GOLDEN AGE into India to begin with and then into the rest of the nations on earth, you will know it to be a fact! To start, I recommend the Phyllis Krystal books, the Howard Murphet books, and the John Hislop books, though every other book by other authors is also well worth reading...

Lastly, I recommend Joyriding the Universe, a Phillip book, listed on the next page. The popular and accurately revealing Seth books came from the same source. Seth was the outer-ring extension of the current Phillip identity. You will realize why I recommend reading Phillip material, since he speaks a great deal about the DEAD ZONE. Enjoy! Explore! Become!

(1) Author Information

At age 18 the author was transformed by a fully conscious physical "death experience." During the five minutes or more that the author was clinically dead he experienced a flashback of every moment of his prior 18 years--followed by lesser flashbacks of a life in ancient India--and a life in old Egypt, approximately 1600 B.C.

He returned to his body IN THE DAZZLING WHITE LIGHT--and after this profound experience found psychic flashes and precognitive visions easily triggered when essential to bodily survival thereafter--avoiding certain death several dramatic times over the following years. He was host of his own TV "talk show -- THE MYSTERIES in 1975! (D.C)

He overcame polio to go forward and accomplish his dream of being a professional basketball player--for a period of seven years. He is a published songwriter--with one Count Basie record to his credit.

The author studied psychology and taught an accredited psychology course at the UNIVERSITY OF HUMANISTIC STUDIES in San Diego, California.

He has authored over 20 books--starting in 1970--with all of them going into several reprints. One of them, Finding Your Soulmate, sold to SAMUEL WEISER, INC. is now in twelve languages world-wide. His sequel, Your Soulmate is Calling, is presently contracted in thirteen languages. MENTAL ROOM OF MIRRORS--Self Therapy Technique is contracted in Portuguese and Italian already...and one of his other latest books just written---Finding Mr. Right or Mrs. Right is contracted for Spanish translation. Author holds WORLD RIGHTS to all his books/WEISER/exception.

In 1980 he gave up his self-publishing business and founded and sold a health product company, THE FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH in 1983--taking it from ZERO to 3,000 active representatives. The company is still active in Newport, Oregon. (Author sold it in 1986)

In 1984 he was awarded the Bronze Halo Award by the Southern California Motion Picture Council--for his contribution as an author, lecturer, philanthropist and humanitarian!

From 1970--commencing with the publication of his first book, Why and How of Meditation he began a lecture tour across the USA, speaking at colleges and universities, New Age Centers, Unity and other denominational churches--and became a "key speaker" at health and New-Age conferences. He was soon firmly booked six months in advance during his 10 years of lecturing--from 1970 to 1980.

During that time--he appeared--often as a "repeat guest" on over 500 radio and TV "Talk Shows" including a repeat appearance on the REGIS PHILBIN show--featuring his best-selling book, Finding Your Soulmate. He also appeared on TV news shows and solicited countless newspaper article stories about himself and his books. He arranged all of these talk shows, news interviews and newspaper articles himself...almost invariably given a "firm booking" or interview "on the spot!" He currently lives back and forth between Virginia Beach, VA. and AUSTRIA where is wife Maria (soulmate) and six year son, John Matthew Michael reside. He currently owns and runs GLOBAL HEALTH NETWORK, a health product company in Virginia Beach....NO PROBLEM TO MAKE TIME TO APPEAR ON RADIO & TV SHOWS MARKETING THIS BOOK!!

We predict that ZONE OF THE DEAD will be one of the most capturing and insightful books you will have ever read! One reader of the just finished book manuscript shouted afterward, "It's the best book I have ever read in my life!" Find out if you are being milked daily like a cow! Find out in this book:are the heavens and hells of the DEAD ZONE real? Michael the author gives a vivid, well-detailed account of his very own real DEATH EXPERIENCE. He tells of his own conscious and fearful journey through the DEAD ZONE at age eighteen. Michael reveals how upon our after/death entrance into the DEAD ZONE we are methodically "stripped" of the major part of our memory and self-identity! He knows from personal experience how very excruciatingly painful this cruel memory and identity stripping process is...Learn why and how this universal DEAD ZONE was constructed, how it acts exactly like a huge protective womb or a giant incubator for our departed human spirits. The DEAD ZONE is our home after human death while we wait in between time for a suitable conception to take place for our rebirth on earth. Is reincarnation a fact? Learn why animals do not need a DEAD ZONE like humans so for their in-between lifetime cycles. Will you meet "Sweetie" or "Rover" there? Michael shares insightful views with his readers on how and why these continual birth/death/rebirth cycles have been ongoing for nearly ten million years on our lush, green, blue and fertile earth. You will clearly understand that our human body is simply a very marvelous "carriage" for human spirit. Discover how human spirits were made. Can something come out of the great void of nothing? There are countless high and low worlds or realms in the DEAD ZONE and the majority of them are filled with very real demons, overlords, pseudo "gods" and personal "keepers" than can bleed through and feed off of our vital life energies even while we are embodied here on our earth. In actuality, the DEAD ZONE is but a single thought away! The role of possession and schizophrenia is clearly presented, as well as the roles of Religion, Politics, War, Science, Major Sports, Invention, Raucous Music, Drugs and other major gestalts on earth that help feed these parasites and deadly vampires...skulking us from the DEAD ZONE! Do a few "elite" overlord families control us on earth? Discover how your own guilt, regret, fear, anger, and other negative human traits feed your personal keeper in the DEAD ZONE! Find out why the DEAD ZONE is about to collapse and about the imminent birth of earth as a star! Learn dramatic earth changes and how you can keep from being eaten alive daily by these DEAD ZONE overlord keepers!
